Whether or not work can be under full swing before the first of the year is a prediction that the men in charge decline to make, but optimistic people in close touch with affairs at the mine, see no reason why this should not be accomplished.

Died Suddenly (?)

Mrs. Ann M. Temple of Nokomis died very suddenly at 1 o'clock Wednesday morning of heart failure. Though she has been ailing for some time, her friends were greatly shocked at the suddenness of her death.

Mrs. Ann M. Temple was 68 years old. Her maiden name was Caddux and she was raised in Ohio where she was first married. Her husband died and she came to Illinois where she was married to James Temple who died 16 years ago.

To the first union one child was born. She is now married, her name being Wooley and she resides in Missouri. No children were born to the second union.

Mrs. Temple was a faithful member of the Baptist church and her burial took place from that church at Nokomis at 2 o'clock Thursday, Sept. 24.

What's in a name?

Last Name:

Temple

1. English and French: occupational name or habitation name for someone who was employed at or lived near one of the houses ('temples') maintained by the Knights Templar, a crusading order so named because they claimed to occupy in Jerusalem the site of the old temple (ME, OF temple, L templum, a deriv. of temere to cut, referring originally to a sacred enclosure). The order was founded in 1118 and flourished for 200 years, but was suppressed as heretical in 1312.

2. English: name given to foundlings baptized at the Temple Church, London, so called because it was originally built on land belonging to the Templars.

3. Scots: habitation name from the parish of Temple in Edinburgh, likewise so called because it was the site of the local headquarters of the Knights Templar.

First Name:

Sarah

Biblical: name of the wife of Abraham and mother of Isaac. According to the Book of Genesis, she was originally called Sarai (possibly meaning "contentious" in Hebrew), but had her name changed by God to the more auspicious Sarah "princess" in token of a greater blessing (Genesis 17: 15, "And God said unto Abraham, As for Sarai thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sarai, but Sarah shall her name be"). In Ireland this has been used as an Anglicized form of Sorcha, in Scotland of Mór. Variants: Sara, Zara.Cognate: Hungarian: Sára.Pet forms: English: Sally, Sadie. Spanish: Sarita. Swedish: Sassa. Hungarian: Sári.

Paddock Family

My Paddock quest started with the most information and has been the most difficult. As one correspondent mentioned, they must not have liked each other very much!

The family seems to have originated in France, moving to England and Ireland at an early time and then to this country and Canada. Robert (d 1650) was a blacksmith at Plymouth. A son married into the Sears family and a grandson married Alice Alden. Some offspring moved to Nantucket and became whalers. Some became Quakers intermarrying with the Macy's, Coffin's, Gardner's and Eddy's. Some fought in the American Revolution. They spread out to surrounding states and then moved westward.

Ebenezer (b abt 1740 d abt 1830) is listed in the DAR records as being born in Maryland. He fought at Fort Pitt in the Revolution for Virginia, married in Pennsylvania in 1774, moved into Kentucky, then to Ohio, on into Indiana and is buried in Terra Haute. (That's right - this is my line and I still think he was dropped from a UFO!)

In our form driven, computerized world of the twentieth century, some things are rigidly consistent. In the eighteenth century this was not the case. Names were spelled however whoever was writing thought they sounded. Paddock can be Padoque, Paddock, Paddack, Paddox, Paddax, and other's I've forgotten.

The original colonies extended to the west coast. People followed Indian and buffalo trails, rivers and their hearts. I consider it a major accomplishment when I complete a 2 mile walk....these people walked across the country.

Paddock Family

My Paddock quest started with the most elementary one I've been the most difficult. As one consciousness mentioned, they must not have lived each other very much.

The family seems to have originated in France, moving to England and moving at an early time and then to the colonies and Canada. Richard of 1760 was a blacksmith at Plymouth. A son married into the Sears family and a grandson married Alice Alden. Some obligatory movies to Connecticut and became wealthy. Some became Quakers intermarrying with the Macy's, Griffin's Odlorne's and Cady's. Some fought in the American Revolution. They prided themselves in pioneering states, and then moved westward.

Deborah in an 1820 d did 1820, is listed in the DAR records as being born in Marylend. He fought at Fort Pitt in the Revolution for Virginia, married in Pennsylvania in 1774, moved into Kentucky then to Ohio, on into Indiana and is buried in Terre Haute. (There were [illegible] and I can't find the date. Grandpa Ron & DROH)

In our form driven, compartmented world of the twentieth century, some things are more important. In my genealogy, certainly this was not the case. Names were the only thing I knew for sure. Dates were [illegible] sometimes. Relatives can be Paddock, Paddock, Paddock, Paddock. Paddock. And other times it can be anyone.

The original colonists settled in the east coast. People followed roads and trails, rivers and lines, moving to [illegible] or a major accomplishment when I complete a 2 mile walk. Those people walked across the country.

Tips on Using the Illinois Statewide Marriage Index

- To avoid text wrapping to multiple lines, it may be necessary to select a smaller text size in your browser depending on your monitor's screen resolution. In most browsers, text size can be changed under the View menu.
- To print the list of marriages from the results screen, set your printer's page orientation to landscape.
- Illinois marriages were not required to be performed in the county of the bride's or groom's residence. If your search does not find a marriage in the county you expected it to occur, try selecting STATEWIDE in the location option box.
- The Illinois Statewide Marriage Index is an on-going project and does not currently include marriage records for all counties in Illinois or complete date spans for some counties.
  Click here for a list of counties and date spans included in the Illinois Statewide Marriage Index.
- Click here for information about how to obtain copies of original marriage records.

Estate of John D. Paddock Deceased.

STATE OF ILLINOIS, Montgomy COUNTY. } In County Court, March Term, A. D. 1871.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, TO W. F. Mulkey, John W. Hancock and John M. Stewart

of the County of Montgomy and State of Illlinois, GREETING:

THIS is to authorize you, jointly, to appraise the goods, chattels and personal estate of John D. Paddock late of the County of Montgomy and State of Illinois, deceased, so far as the same shall come to your sight and knowledge, each of you having first taken the oath hereto annexed; a certificate whereof you are to return, annexed to an Appraisement Bill of said goods, chattels, and personal estate, by you appraised, in dollars and cents; and in the said bill of appraisement you are to set down in a column or columns, opposite to each article appraised, the value thereof.

WITNESS, Wm D Shirley Clerk of the County Court for the said County of Montgomy at his office in Hillsboro this 14 day of March A. D. 1871, and the Probate Seal of said Court hereunto affixed.

Wm D Shirley CLERK.

OATH OF APPRAISERS.

You and each of you do solemnly swear, that you will well and truly, without partiality or prejudice, value and appraise the goods, chattels and personal estate of John D Paddock deceased, so far as the same shall come to your sight and knowledge; and that you will in all respects perform your duty as appraisers to the best of your skill and judgment.

J W Hancock
W F Mulkey
J M Stewart

Subscribed and sworn to this Sixth day of April A. D. 1871, before me,

J W Hancock JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.

PLEASE READ THIS LAW.

By the Act of the Legislature of this State, of February 11th, 1847, it is declared that "widows living in this State, of persons whose estates are administered upon in this State, shall be allowed in all cases, in exclusion of creditors, as their sole and exclusive property, forever, necessary beds, bedsteads and bedding for themselves and families, necessary household and kitchen furniture, one spinning wheel, one loom and its appendages, one pair of cards, one stove and necessary pipe therefor, the wearing apparel of themselves and families, one milch cow and calf for every four persons in the family, one horse at the value of forty dollars, one woman's saddle and bridle of the value of fifteen dollars, provisions for themselves and families for one year, two sheep for each member of the family, and the fleeces taken from the same, food for the stock above described for six months, fuel for themselves and families for three months, and sixty dollars' worth of other property." By the same Act it is directed that "the appraisers shall make out and certify to the Court of Probate, an estimate of the value of each article of specific property herein allowed to the widow."

☞ Much difficulty is occasioned in many instances by the appraisers mistaking the ESTIMATE FOR THE WIDOW as a part of the appraisement. IT IS NO PART OF THE APPRAISEMENT, and it is no matter whether the Estate has the particular articles mentioned in the following table, or whether there is nothing of the sort among the property of the Estate. The appraisers will take each item in its order, and estimate what it ought to be worth, and then set down the estimated value in the column headed DOLLARS CENTS. Begin with "necessary beds, bedsteads and bedding for the widow and family," estimate what you think would be fair to allow the widow for that, and set it down in the column. When you come to "One Spinning Wheel," "One Loom and its Appendages;" and other items, don't pass one of them by, but set down what in your opinion such things ought to be worth, and if the Estate has not got those articles, the widow can take their estimated value in other things, or in cash. Don't alter the printed amounts in the column, as they are established by law, and cannot be changed.

Having finished your estimates, foot it up, and that foot will be the amount of the widow's allowance, which she can take in the above articles, if the Estate has them, or in other things at the appraised value, or in money.

☞ Recollect that the above estimate is not appraising. Having completed that estimate, go on and appraise EVERY article of personal property belonging to the Estate, OMITTING NOTHING, and set them down with their prices in the Appraisement Bill following.

The appraisers having nothing to do with Notes, Accounts, Stocks in Companies, or any other papers, as they cannot be appraised, such things must be left out of the Appraisement Bill entirely. They are proper matters to be listed in the inventory, filled by the Executor or Administrator, which is a separate matter from the appraisement bill.

Dear Ms. Fulton:

Thank you for your interest in the Illinois Regional Archives Depository System (IRAD).

In response to your letter of 28 August 1993, we searched the Montgomery County Probate Will records and were able to locate a Will for Ebenezer Paddock. As requested, enclosed are copies of the documents found.

We Also searched the State Wide Marriage Index; but, unfortunately, we could not find a reference for him. The IRAD system does not have burial records for Montgomery County, the County Clerk may still have burial permit records, and the Montgomery County Genealogical Society may have a Cemetery Inscription record.

The Montgomery County Genealogical Society may also have a copy of the Montgomery County History which may list Ebenezer Paddock.
We also searched the Public Domain Land Tract Sales for Montgomery county, Unfortunately we did not find Ebenezer Paddock.

In order to search the Montgomery County land records, and the birth records for John D. Paddock we would need a smaller time frame in which you would expect those records to show up. ie. When was John D. Paddock born? And, when do you believe Ebenezer Paddock purchased, or sold land?

The address of the Montgomery County Genealogical Society is as follows:

Montgomery County Genealogical Society
Box 212
Litchfield, IL 62056.

Also enclosed is additional record resources with the address of the Montgomery County Court House, and your self addressed envelope. The return postage is paid for by the Illinois Secretary of State.

In order to conduct a search of the IRAD holdings, researchers are asked to provide the following information:

1. The full name of the person they are researching;

2. The approximate year when this person is expected to appear in a record;
3. The county which created the record;
4. A record title/type to search.

Researchers are also asked to limit their requests to two (2) names at a time and to wait for a response to their first request before submitting additional requests.

For your information, also enclosed are the IRAD brochure, research policy sheet and family research tips sheet concerning the various records and services available in the IRAD System.

Thank you again for your interest in the IRAD System. If we can be of any further assistance, please feel free to contact us again.

Sincerely,

Dennis E. Spohrer
IRAD Intern

Tips on Using the Illinois Statewide Marriage Index

- To avoid text wrapping to multiple lines, it may be necessary to select a smaller text size in your browser depending on your monitor's screen resolution. In most browsers, text size can be changed under the View menu.
- To print the list of marriages from the results screen, set your printer's page orientation to landscape.
- Illinois marriages were not required to be performed in the county of the bride's or groom's residence. If your search does not find a marriage in the county you expected it to occur, try selecting STATEWIDE in the location option box.
- The Illinois Statewide Marriage Index is an on-going project and does not currently include marriage records for all counties in Illinois or complete date spans for some counties.
  Click here for a list of counties and date spans included in the Illinois Statewide Marriage Index.

Pat, thanks for the reply and the information as to where you received the Dunn link. I am pursuing the Paddock line, know I have found a definite proof for John D. Paddock to the Pennsylvania area. I will keep your information in my files and be happy to contact you as to the any later Dunn or Carr connections.

The email is the extent of my knowledge of your line, as far as I know. Sounds like you are pursuing the Paddock line. If you can link your Carrs to any in my database, I'd be most obliged to hear from you. You might be able to pursue this Dunn list info in Rootsweb archives of bulletin boards. Gary doesn't seem to have grabbed any identifying information from the posting, except for the Samuel Dunn b 1780 title. You can use the date as a guide, as he likely pulled from current postings. Good luck. Pat than Jennie's mother-- I have found:

Mary Ella, Lucinda, Smith and Ida E. Paddock are listed with mother, Julia --no surname is listed. HOWEVER, the father is listed for the four children is Zachariah Paddock. There are 7 or 8 different people who have listed this information in WorldConnect. Also listed is another wife of Zachariah, Mary Graves b. 1780 and married Zach 11 August 1822 and they had 7 children.

Am going to correspond with those listing Zach and the Julia children and see where their information has been found. They list birth and death dates for Zachariah and they also list Mary Ellen as being the wife of H.A. Carr, but not other info for her. Also listed is info for Ida E. so perhaps this information came through Ida's family as her bithdate is listed. You might like to go to the website and look at the listings. If you search for Zachariah and let that load, then go down to the bottom of the page and type in Mary Graves or Julia, that will reduce the number of hits. Then look for ag219 in the database column, that one shows the most information.

I look forward to hearing from you and hope we can begin to solve my "brick wall" together.

Pat, I would like to correspond with you regarding your Carr ancestor line. I have been working on my Paddock line. From the information you have on the website, I believe we can have a connection. I cannot believe you just posted your information this past Wednesday, can't say enough about good timing!

My great-great grandfather, John D. Paddock (I did not know is middle name) married Sarah Jane Temple 27 February 1868 and had one child my great grandmother, Jennie Marie Paddock. John D. died in Montgomery County, Illinois 14 March 1871, have not found his burial as yet. Sarah Jane remarried Bazzle Duff and is buried in Crabtree Cemetery, Montgomery Co, IL.

In John's Inventory and Distribution, the following children were listed, there does appear to be a will--
Smith A. listed as son of John D. Paddock
Emma C. Lee (this is no desigination as to being a daughter for any of the girls--no ditto marks)
Lucinda Stratton
Ida E. Paddock
M. Ella Paddock
Jennie Paddock

I believe the M. Ella Paddock could possibly be your Ella Paddock.
I know you have listed the DAR information from the Dunn-List and I am the registrar for our DAR chapter, so will order the application papers for Ella Paddock Dunn to see if her documentation gives some helpful information, that is unless you already have a copy. Please let me know. It takes between 8 and 10 weeks to get papers, so I will have to be patient!

You have listed Julia Richards Strait as Ella's mother. Am interested as to where that info was found. Here is what I have found in searching in the Paddock surnames. But it does puzzle me--

On the WorldConnect, as I was searching for these children of John D. and any another wife other than Jennie's mother-- I have found:
Mary Ella, Lucinda, Smith and Ida E. Paddock are listed with mother, Julia --no surname is listed. HOWEVER, the father is listed for the four children is Zachariah Paddock. Hi Jeff,

I also own a copy of Robert Cooper Cutshaw's The Paddock Genealogy, descendants of Robert Paddock of Plymouth Colony.

My husband is a descendant through Robert, Zachariah, Judah, (who married Alice Alden), Reuben, Reuben, Reuben, Rebecca. When you send the details as far back as you can, we can see where it ties in. Happy hunting.

Brief History of the Wheat Area, the Welckers, & the Gallahers

Before there was an Oak Ridge, before there was a United States, the native inhabitants of this land made their camps and hunted along the Tennessee and Clinch Rivers. Their trails followed the buffalo, deer, and elk paths from East Tennessee across the Cumberland Plateau to the fertile meadows and salt licks of the Cumberland Basin where now lies the city of Nashville.

In the midst of treaty negotiations and delays in surveying the land in 1794 Elias Roberts sold his property in Pendleton, S.C. and purchased land in Sugar Grove Valley, which at that time was still a part of Knox County. Over the next 5 years he bought land along the Clinch River and its junction with Poplar Creek. He was probably the first white settler in that area.

The land was rich in timber, and soon the Clinch River became an active highway for logs floating downstream to markets. As the timber disappeared, the area became known as Bald Hill.

In 1881 the thriving community which included Poplar Creek Seminary, as well as other churches and schools, would be named Wheat, after Henry Wheat, who was Postmaster at that time.

In 1942, as part of the Manhattan Project, whose goal was to develop the Atomic Bomb and put an end to WW II, the Army Corps of Engineers under the Manhattan District acquired the land. All residents were evicted and were given between two and six weeks to move. Residents were allowed to take only their personal possessions. Flowers, fencing, even hay in the barn had to be left behind.

John Henry and Elizabeth Inman Welcker owned and operated a plantation named Laurel Banks as early as 1810, possibly 1805. It was located along the Clinch River where K-25 now stands. They had 11 children. The Welcker family was very influential in the early days of Roane County with members of the family serving on various boards, committees, and political offices including the Tennessee House of Representatives. C.F. Welcker, who owned and operated a mill at the junction of East Fork Poplar Creek and Big Poplar Creek, served as Postmaster from 1853 - 1857, at which time the area was known as Welcker's Mills. Early records show the Welckers were also active in the buying, hiring out, and selling of slaves.

John Henry Welcker died in 1838. His wife lived 2 more years. Then in 1847 George Hamilton Gallaher bought the Laurel Banks farm.

Laurel Banks was a very prosperous farm. According to the 1860 Roane County census George Gallaher, Sr. owned $25,000 worth of real estate. His personal estate was valued at $36,000. Like most Roane County farmers of the day he raised corn, oats, hay, and other staple crops. He may have raised sweet potatoes, Irish potatoes, wheat, and tobacco. Horses, oxen, cows, pigs, chickens, and probably other livestock were found on the Laurel Banks farm. In 1860 George Gallaher, Sr. also owned at least 19 slaves.

George and Lucinda Gallaher had 8 children; however, Hamilton King drowned in Poplar Creek in 1855 before his 10th birthday. David Houston was 11 when his family left the Hardin Valley area of Knox County and bought Laurel Banks. In 1859 he married Martha (Mattie) E. Owens, and his father deeded him a farm on Poplar Creek. It was located on present day Blair Rd. opposite the central part of K-25. They called it Maple Hill. David Houston reportedly never believed in slavery; however, when Mattie's father gave them a female slave as a wedding present, he became, at least technically, a slave owner.

When the estate sale was held after the death of C.F. Welcker in 1862, David hired a small Negro boy for $15.00. In 1857-58 the state of Tennessee had rewritten its slave code. "On letting such slave to hire, the jailer, before delivering him to the hirer, shall cause an iron collar to be put on his neck stamped P.G. (Public Gaol)." Many such laws were often treated casually or disregarded entirely. We don't know if this child was subjected to that degrading practice or not; however, it certainly is a possibility, and it was the law.

Former slaves frequently said that the worst anxiety in a slave's life was the fear and uncertainty of being sold away from one's family and home. There was no way of knowing if one would be sold out of state, or to a kind or cruel master. One must also consider that the Tennessee legislature had passed a law in 1853 requiring a slave emancipated from that time on to be removed to Liberia, Africa. With this understanding of the times, hiring the small child may well have been an act of human kindness giving the child some assurance of being well-cared for and remaining near his family and friends.

Bicentennial Series

Dillard Rhodes great-great-grandfather

County's ear mostly from

Amanda Welker Rhodes' Grandfather

By Mary C. Welker
Route 2, Box 33
Lutesville, Mo.

I have been reading the Bicentennial letters that have been sent in to the Banner-Press, and I remembered the old clipping which is thought to be from the Kansas City Star newspaper. The clipping was given to me by my mother, the late Mrs. Louis Welker, some 30 years ago. I thought the names and dates of when they came to Bollinger County would be of interest to others who read the Bicentennial series.

Lenord Welker, who was one of the first to cross the Mississippi River at Ste. Genevieve on New Year's Day in 1800, was my great-grandfather. He homesteaded near Burfordville and took part in helping with the old Burfordville Mill. There are no records of the dates of his death that we can acknowledge. He is buried in the old James Cemetery near Scopus. Hamilton Mary. in James Grill.

He also had a son named Lenord Welker, 2 my grandfather, who married Hannah (Shrum) Welker. They homesteaded a home on Highway CC north of Marble Hill. They had two children, Ephriom R. Welker and Seraldiah Clementine (Welker) Long. Hannah died and Lenord then married her sister, Mahala (Shrum) Welker. They had three children, Peter L. Welker, Polly Ann (Welker) Jenkins. and Louis S. Welker, who was my father. My grandfather was a Baptist minister.

Lenord Welker served in the Civil War. Lenord and Mahala Welker died in 1929. Lenord, Hannah, and Mahala are all buried at the old Shrum Cemetery off Highway 51, north of Marble Hill. Their children are deceased.

Ephriom R. Welker is buried in the old Union Cemetery near Bessville. S. Clementine (Welker) Long and Polly Ann (Welker) Jenkins are buried at Hurricane Fork Cemetery. Peter L. Welker and Louis S. Welker, my father, who married Fanny C. (Aldrich) Welker, are buried at Plain View Cemetery north of Marble Hill. I would like to continue with the clipping in hopes that it will be of interest and benefit to others.

(NOTE: This account of the early families of Bollinger County is an incomplete account. No doubt several names have been omitted. Any information regarding the time of the arrival of other families not mentioned in this narrative, will be gratefully received.)

RITES TO BE HELD TODAY
1954 FOR MRS. LEE RHODES, 81

Mrs. Amnada Elizabeth Rhodes, 81 years old, died Tuesday at 7:00 a. m. at her home, eight miles north of Marble Hill, on Highway 51 after being ill only a few days.

The body was removed from the Ward Funeral Home in Lutesville to the family home where it will remain until funeral services which will be held today (Thursday) at 11:00 a. m., at the Plainview Methodist Church where she was a member. Rev. Geo. Mills of Marquand conducted the services and burial was in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Rhodes, the former Miss Amanda E. Welker, daughter of Jac[illegible] and Emmaline Davault Welker, was born June 20, 1873 in this county. She was married to Lee Rhodes in 1897, who survives.

She is also survived by seven children, Silas and Dillard Rhodes of Bessville, Milas Rhodes of near Zalma, Mrs. Charley Green of near Dudley, Mrs. Charley Welker of Greenbrier, Mrs. Wm. L. Dale of Cape Girardeau and Mrs. Jess Hahn of Granite City, Illinois; one brother Namon Welker of near Scopus; four sisters, Mrs. Mary Angle of Sedgewickville, Mrs. G. H. Moore and Mrs. Chas. Leadbetter of Greenbrier and Mrs. Cornelius Hahn of Millersville; 27 grandchildren, 21 great-grandchildren, 7 step-grandchildren [illegible] great-grandchildren.

~~a year, yet he knows my record and is going to show it up. Now, Mr. Hill, please confine your letters to me. I have nothing to do with your fight against Mr. Green. He is perfectly able to cope with you. I thank Mr. Green, however, for space in the Banner to reply to you. Mr. Hill, the cowardly act of your life was when you refused me space in the columns of the Press, and at the same time didn't own a cent of it. I beg you sir, to show my record. The people are waiting. He who feeds the ravens, bends to listen.~~

~~I am your obedient servant with a clean record to date.~~

Capture gang of counterfeiters

United States Marshal Buchanan, Treasury Agent F.S. McCullough and Deputy Marshal McCune returned last evening from Bollinger County, Mo., where they effected one of the cleverest and most important captures of a gang of counterfeiters ever made in Missouri. The incidents and circumstances in connection with the origin and formation of the gang, their manner of operation, discovery and arrest, make a most remarkable and thrilling chapter in the criminal annals of the West.

AN OLD DOUBLE MURDER

To comprehend the full story it is necessary to go back to the 25th day of November, 1865, when the leader and organizer of the gang, Alfred C. Green, now a weazen-faced old man of 81 years, first began his criminal record by stabbing to death two men in the town of Centrilia, Ill. He was caught, tried and convicted, but, owing to some mitigating circumstances, only sentenced to the Penitentiary where he remained some two or three years and was pardoned by Governor Oglesby. On his release he removed from Illinois to Bollinger County and settled on a small farm some eight miles from Lutesville, where he has ever since resided. He is a man of more than ordinary intelligence and shrewdness and has long been regarded by his neighbors in Bollinger County as a crafty old man whose life was quite mysterious. While numerous rumors have long been afloat among the people of that section in regard to the old man being a counterfeiter, nothing could ever be traced to him.

Residing about three-quarters of a mile from the old man lives a German family by the name of Welkers with whom he has long been intimate. The male members of this family consist of father, John C. Welker, aged about 55 years; three grown sons, Jacob B., Alfred C. and George and a son-in-law by the name of John C. Limbough.

COUNTERFEIT MONEY

Last Monday, as heretofore published, the two latter, Geo., Welker and Limbough, made their appearance in the town of Cape Girardeau and commenced the operation of passing counterfeit silver dollars. They had passed but one or two of the spurious coins when the local officers got on their racket and arrested them, and finding on their persons seven more of the $1 counterfeits, the men were immediately brought here and turned over to the Government authorities. They had an examination before Commissioner Crawford, but refused to reveal how they came by the counterfeits further than to state that they obtained the coins as part consideration of the price of a horse sold to a man by the name of Green. They were held over in the sum of $2,000 each and committed to jail.

Knowing that these two men must have other confederates, Marshal Buchanan and Treasury Agent Crawford, accompanied by Deputy McCune, immediately left for the locality on a tour of investigation. Arriving in the neighborhood among the rocky hills of Bollinger County it did not take much inquiry to satisfy them who the parties were they wanted.

GREEN TAKEN IN

Old man Green was first visited at his home, and, while he protested ignorance, the officers were credulous and proceeded to make an unceremonious search of the premises, when they discovered unmistakable evidence of the old man's guilt in a regular "mill" consisting of three or four counterfeit moulds and other counterfeiting material. Green then confessed that he made the moulds, but not for his own use, and he said he defined anyone to prove he had ever made counterfeit money. Later he became quite communicative and stated he made the moulds for the Welkers, had delivered some of them, for which he had received in part payment a horse; that the moulds he had were made to their order, but as they had not paid for them he would not deliver the moulds. He also informed the officers where they would find the "mill" belonging to the Welkers, and stated that a week ago last Sunday he had, at the invitation of the Welkers, been present at a casting in the woods near their house when they coined $100 of various denominations. They wanted him to be present, he said, to see that their mixture of the metal was right. He confessed to have been in the business of making counterfeit moulds for some time, and stated that it was "a great country for his business."

WELKERS ARRESTED

Securing Green, the officers hastened on to the home of the Welkers. They found the father at work in the field and the two sons at the house. One of the latter was seen running to the house as the officers approached and Agent Crawford immediately gave chase and caught him just as he was entering the room where the "mill" was located evidently for the purpose of hiding it. A search of the premises revealed quite a quantity of material in the shape of moulds for coining dollars, halves, quarters, dimes, and nickels, the necessary metal, plaster of paris, chemicals, pots', ladles and bellows. The Welkers took their arrest very cooly and the family did not seem the least exercised about the matter; in fact the sister of the boys laughed and said, "I told you so." Having secured all their prisoners and the two "mills" the officers started on the return with them to Lutesville, where they caught a north-bound train and arrived safely in the city last evening at 7 o'clock and lodged their prisoners in the jail to await examination this morning before Commissioner Crawford.

There were six moulds secured altogether and Agent Crawford pronounced them superior to any moulds he ever saw, as they are hinged together very ingenuously and when closed are held securely by a catch.

They are made of poplar wood, are about an inch thick when shut and some 2½ inches wide by 3 long. Quite a quantity of the spurious coin was also secured. — Republic. — Marble Hill Press, July 2, 1891

Recover tools

U.S. Marshal Buchanan and a deputy were in this "neck o' the woods" again last week. They went out in the neighborhood of Leopold and got the remainder of the tools and metals which were used by old man Green and his aides in the manufacture of spurious coin. They made no arrests. — Marble Hill Press, July 9, 1891

Green says he is guilty

Calvin Green and his somewhat notorious gang of counterfeiters were in the United States District Court last week and, all except Jacob Welker, whose case was nolle prossed, plead guilty. Calvin Green was given two years in the Penitentiary from date and fined $1 and costs. Green is now 81 years old, and it seems probable that this sentence will wind up his rather remarkable career. He was a pretty tough character in his younger days and killed two brothers in Illinois named Flynn. He was given a life sentence, but managed to obtain a pardon from Governor Armstrong. He seems to have been in the counterfeiting business for almost a life time, for old men of this county say that when they were boys it was generally believed that Green was engaged in the manufacture of spurious coin. Speaking of Green the Republic says: "Since last July old man Green, the head of the gang, has been in the City Hospital. He had a hacking cough when he was captured, and it was said by the physician that he had, or would likely have, consumption. Since his arrest he has appeared very feeble and bowed down by his many years, but there has been a lurking suspicion in the minds of the officials that he is not so weak as he would have it believed. However that may be, the Court, despite the old man's hacking cough, bestowed on him a two years' sentence in the Penitentiary at hard labor.

Green pleaded hard for a lighter sentence and when told that he was in for two years declared he would not live out half of it. He has married seven or eight wives, two of which have run away from him, and he has reared thirty children, twenty-four of whom were his own. The Court will allow him to go back to the hospital for the present and perhaps he may be able to secure a pardon on account of his great age."

The others were sentenced as follows: John C. Welker, $5 and costs and twenty-two months in the Penitentiary from July 1 last; George R. Welker, $5 and costs and one year in the Penitentiary from date; Johnson Limbaugh, $5 and costs and one year in the Missouri Penitentiary from date; Jacob Long, $5 and costs and six months in Missouri Penitentiary from date. John C. Welker was first given twenty-four months, but Mr. Bashaw, his attorney, pleaded for a reduction to twenty two, so that the old man could get out to be of some use in spring work on the farm. — Marble Hill Press, Nov. 19, 1891

Welkers among early settlers

By Mary C. Welker
Route 2, Box 33
Lutesville, Mo.

I have been reading the Bicentennial letters that have been sent in to the Banner-Press, and I remembered the old clipping which is thought to be from the Kansas City Star newspaper. The clipping was given to me by my mother, the late Mrs. Louis Welker, some 30 years ago. I thought the names and dates of when they came to Bollinger County would be of interest to others who read the Bicentennial series.

Lenord Welker, who was one of the first to cross the Mississippi River at Ste. Genevieve on New Year's Day in 1800, was my great-grandfather. He homesteaded near Burfordville and took part in helping with the old Burfordville Mill. There are no records of the dates of his death that we can acknowledge. He is buried in the old James Cemetery near Scopus.

He also had a son named Lenord Welker, my grandfather, who married Hannah (Shrum) Welker. They homesteaded a home on Highway CC north of Marble Hill. They had two children, Ephriom R. Welker and Seraldiah Clementine (Welker) Long. Hannah died and Lenord then married her sister, Mahala (Shrum) Welker. They had three children, Peter L. Welker, Polly Ann (Welker) Jenkins, and Louis S. Welker, who was my father.

Lenord Welker served in the Civil War. Lenord and Mahala Welker died in 1929. Lenord, Hannah, and Mahala are all buried at the old Shrum Cemetery off Highway 51, north of Marble Hill. Their children are deceased.

Ephriom R. Welker is buried in the old Union Cemetery near Bessville. S. Clementine (Welker) Long and Polly Ann (Welker) Jenkins are buried at Hurricane Fork Cemetery. Peter L. Welker and Louis S. Welker, my father, who married Fanny C. (Aldrich) Welker, are buried at Plain View Cemetery north of Marble Hill. I would like to continue with the clipping in hopes that it will be of interest and benefit to others.

(NOTE: This account of the early families of Bollinger County is an incomplete account. No doubt several names have been omitted. Any information regarding the time of the arrival of other families not mentioned in this narrative, will be gratefully received.)

The first settlement in what is now Bollinger County was made by George Frederick Bollinger, a native of North Carolina, whose father, Henry Bollinger, was killed during the Revolutionary War. He came first to what is now Southeast Missouri in 1796 or 1797. It was during this visit that he received a land grant from Don Louis Lorimer, the Spanish Commander at Cape Girardeau.

George Frederick Bollinger then returned to North Carolina and tried to interest his brothers and some of his neighbors in the new country. The Spanish land grant on Whitewater and the neighboring valleys was extensive, and land was cheap — quite cheap. A grant of 640 acres could be secured at a total cost of about forty-four dollars. Of course, the first settlers were quick to secure the bottom or valley land, which explains the early settlements along Whitewater, Castor and Crooked Creek valleys.

The chief of the Bollinger family was beyond doubt a man of persuasive powers. His brothers and friends were fascinated by his accounts of the new, well-watered and splendidly timbered lands beyond the Mississippi. Some time in 1799 (the year George Washington died) a wagon caravan left North Carolina for the West, under the leadership of G.F. Bollinger. Some of the men who accompanied him were his brothers, Phillip, Daniel, William, John, Henry and Matthias Bollinger, Peter and Conrad Statler, Joseph Nicewonger, Peter Crites, Leonard Welker, Fredrick Slinkard, George and Peter Grount, John and David Cotner, John and Isaac Miller and Frederick Limbaugh. They crossed the Mississippi River at Ste. Genevieve on New Year's Day in the year 1800.

As has been indicated George F. Bollinger was the leader of this group. He was essentially a man of character and ability. He served as commander of the territorial militia, member of the territorial assembly of Missouri, and after Missouri was admitted to the Union, he became a member of the state senate and for a time was president of this body. At one time he was mentioned prominently as a highly desirable candidate for the United States Senate, though he never entered the race for that office. His only daughter, Sarah, was the owner of the first piano in what is now Cape Girardeau County. Mr. Bollinger died in 1845 and is buried near Burfordville. Bollinger County and Fredericktown were named in his memory.

Many other settlers followed the first group. Among those who came between 1800 and 1803 were Valentine Loor, John Lorance (some reports say Lorance came in 1797), Handel Barks, Eliiah Welch, Daniel Hildebrand, William Patterson, Thos. Lewis, James Smith, Leonard Hargrave. About 1802 Phillip and William Bollinger, Joseph Watkins, Robert Harper, Eden Hawthorne, and a Mr. Ashbranner established a village on the present site of Zalma. Ashbranner erected a mill on the site of the later McMinn mill about 1804.

The great majority of the early citizens of what is now Bollinger County were from North Carolina. In fact, so many came from the Old Tar State that unless otherwise stated in this article, it will be assumed that the person mentioned came from there. A brief statement of the names and the time of arrival of a number of the early families follows:

Isaac Barks, the father of Jacob Barks, came in 1800; Joseph Estes, in 1803; Christian Seabaugh in 1800; J.S. Yount, 1803; Jacob Lutes, 1804; James Davault in 1804; John Sitze and Henry Whitener in 1804. Rev. Samuel Whybark came to the Whitewater settlement in 1804. He preached in this community until his death in 1833. Frederick Deck settled in Crooked Creek valley in 1805. James Rider came in 1810; Henry Kinder in 1810; John Drum in 1816; David Clippard in 1816; Joseph Burk in 1818; George Lasley in 1818; Jacob Rhodes in 1818; Samuel McMinn, 1819; Hiram Berry in 1816.

Peter Conrad and his son, David, came in 1820. David afterwards married Mary Bollinger, the granddaughter of Matthias Bollinger. David Conrad was a member of the state senate from 1868 to 1872. Thomas L. Revelle came in 1820; Elvis F. Williams in 1820; John Snider in 1825; Stephen Mayfield in 1828. John Stevens came some time before 1828. He was the first postmaster west of Jackson. He later located the town of Poplar Bluff. David Hahn came in 1830; William Morgan, 1834; Thomas Dunn in 1835; John D. Robbins in 1837. Rayford Cooper came in 1845, from Tennessee. Geo. Miller came in 1846; Levi Tankersley, in 1847; Michael Zimmerman, in 1848; Houston Barrett, in 1848; Adolphus Gibbs, in 1849; Henry Killian, in 1850. Richard Masters came in 1851. Henry Bidewell came in 1854 from England. William James came in 1859 from Tennessee. — The Banner-Press, Oct. 16, 1975.

Zalma memories

I have been reading the bicentennial series and thought I would write telling of the things I remember. I was born and reared up around Zalma about 2½ miles north of town.

I can recall quite a number of things and heard my parents and grandparents tell of some of the earlier times in Zalma. It was a busy little town several years ago, when I was a young girl. Zalma had a bank, depot, two doctors' offices, a small hotel and several small businesses, such as a dry goods store, grocery store and cafes. We had small churches and that was about all Zalma had at that time. It was a nice town to live in.

History of Arnsberg and the St. John Evangelical Lutheran Church

The Evangelical Lutheran St. John Church of Arnsberg has been inactive since about 1890. Only the cemetery remains today and is located over one mile wet of the I-55 exit on Route KK. The cemetery has been restored and a perpetual care fund is being established.

The first information we could find about the church is a deed on file in the Cape Girardeau County Recorder's office. The deed is dated July 22, 1856. According to the deed, Charles Hermann and Louise, his wife, and Henry Pohlmann and Caroline, his wife, sold land to the church. Trustees of the church at that time were: Charles Hermann, Christian Tuschhoff, Henry Pohlmann, and Henry Richter.

At the time the church was built the area was not much more than a clearing. It had been inhabited earlier by the various Indian tribes of the area.

On February 3, 1864, George and Lizette Engelmann sold 110 acres of land to Adolph Tacke. This land bordered the church land and sold for $490. On April 27, 1866, a second deed was made with the Evangelical Lutheran Church. This deed was between Adolph and Lizette Tacke and the trustees of the church who were: Christian Tuschhoff, John Kiepe, and Jacob Klempe.

About twenty-six years after the church was organized, Adolph Tacke built a town nearby. Mr. Tacke was born in Arnsberg, Germany, on April 21, 1833. He served three years in the Prussian Army and in 1857 immigrated to the United States, landing in Philadelphia. In 1859 Mr. Tacke settled in Bollinger County where he built a flour mill. That same year he moved to Cape Girardeau County.

In 1861 he enlisted in the Federal Army of the Civil War. He remained a private in the army for six months with the Fourth Missouri Infantry. He re-enlisted as a first lieutenant and was discharged as a captain in February 1865. He returned to Arnsberg where he built a sawmill in 1882, a flour mill, and a mercantile store. A post office was located within the store. By 1884, there also was a blacksmith shop, a saloon, and an octagon-shaped dance hall.

Mr. Tacke first married Lizette Zoellner, daughter of Ferdinand and Nettie Dolle Zoellner. After her death he married Nancy Caroline Milster. He was the father of four children: William Tacke, Mrs. Mathilde Holmes, Mrs. C. T. Maintz, and Franklin J. Tacke, who married Carrie Long.

Adolph Tacke had a store at Muehleim, Perry County, Missouri, with Ferdinand Zoellner. There are also remembrances of a store just east of Arnsberg on the John Franklin Tuschhoff farm. A store ledger book for Tacke's store in Arnsberg dates from 1867.

Adolph Tacke, founder and owner of the town of Arnsberg, died June 1, 1909. He is buried in the cemetery at Arnsberg. Other family names found buried in the cemetery are: Bailey, Best, Bingenheimer, Dambach, Dickmann, Fiesler, Fulbright, Hoffman, Jaeger, Kaiser, Kayser, Kiepe, Klaus, Kroman, Lowes, Milster, Neislein, Powell, Puntmann, Reinemer, Rhyne, Richter, Rose, Ruppel, Sauer, Schmidt, Schwerdtfeger, Struwe, Thomure, Tuschhoff, Underwood, Wilke, Young, Zimmerman, and Zoellner.

The Community of Brookside

Before we had the farm tractor and automobile, a blacksmith shop took the place of our modern machine shop and garage. Locate along the south side of Byrd Creek on Count Road 439, stood the combination Rapp Stor and Wolfenkoehler Blacksmith Shop.

Wilhelm Wolkenkoehler and son Henry, bot natives of the Kingdom of Hanover, Germany and Paul Rapp and son Joseph Rapp were th owners of the shop and store respectively. Jo seph Rapp, a Justice of the Peace, was the son in-law of Wilhelm Wolfenkoehler.

Once a week the owners would hitch a two horse team to a wagon and go to Jackson fo supplies. These supplies consisted of harnes horse shoes, clothing, groceries, medicine hool supplies, and anything sold at a general ore or used in the blacksmith shop of that day.

For many years the area was referred to as olfenkoehlers Shop, St. John's Church, or hoenebeck School Community. One day Will illmann, nephew of William and Mary Kiepe offmann, stopped by and noticed the nearby rd Creek and called the place Brookside.

In 1915, apparently sparks from the shop used the shop and store to burn. Henry olfenkoehler rebuilt a shop on that spot and e Rapp built a large general store across the ad on the west.

In about 1930 Rapp sold the store to a Mr. mmith, son-in-law of Theodore Kasten of ocahontas. Zimmith owned the store a short me before he sold to Adolph and Willie ilhelm, local farmers. The Wilhelm brothers nted the store to a Mr. Afholter of St. Louis. y this time roads and automobiles were caus- g business in small towns to be unprofitable.

In the 1930s the Wilhelms were using the ore building to store grain. At about that time lbert Wolfenkoehler, son of Henry olfenkoehler, took over the blacksmith busi- ess along with tending the farm. He kept the op going for several years until lack of busi- ess caused him to close.

The Brookside 4-H Club was organized and ourished from about 1950-1975. They had eir meeting place at the St. John's UCC earby.

The store has been gone for several yars but e shop still stands as a storage shed. The Wolfenkoehler house is still occupied but the Rapp home now stands vacant as a reminder of bygone days.

Burfordville and the Bollinger Grist Mill

Major George Frederick Bollinger built his first mill on the Whitewater River in 1800 on a 640-arpent grant from Louis Lorimier, Spanish Commandant of Cape Girardeau District of Upper Louisiana. A German Swiss from North Carolina, Bollinger visited the area in 1796, and returned with twenty families. The families included those of his Bollinger's brothers Matthias, John, Henry, William, Daniel, and Phillip. Other families were those of Peter and Conrad Statler, Joseph Neiswanger, George and Peter Grout, Peter Crytes, John and Jacob Cotner, John and Isaac Miller, Frederick Limbaugh, Leonard Welker, and Frederick Slinkard. Each family received over 400 acres of land in exchange for surveying fees and improvements. (Neumeyer, Jackson Journal, March 19, 1975, p. 11)

Three mills have been built upon the site. In 1825 Bollinger replaced the frame mill with a "more substantial structure" with a limestone foundation and a wooden upper story. His mill became the largest and best in the district. Sarah Daugherty, Bollinger's daughter, inherited the mill upon his death in 1842. During the Civil War, Union troops declared Sarah and her sons Confederate sympathizers and burned the mill.

In 1866 Solomon Richard Burford purchased the mill and surrounding land. He built the mill that stands to this day: three stories of brick placed upon the existing limestone foundation. In 1870 the post office designated the name of Burfordville for the settlement surrounding the mill. Burford was responsible for having the area surveyed to establish an orderly community with lots and streets. Burfordville was incorporated in 1899, almost a century after its settlement.

Ownership of the mill changed hands several times and in 1897 it became part of the Cape County Milling Company. The mill at Burfordville continued its commercial operation until the mid 1940s. In 1953 Clyde Vandivort, a local farmer and descendant of George Bollinger, purchased the abandoned building for storage. The family later donated the mill to the Cape Girardeau County Historical Society. In 1961 the society celebrated the history of the location with a Burfordville Covered Bridge and Mill Marker Dedication. In 1967 the society handed over the property to the Missouri State Park Board, which today is under the auspices of the Missouri Department of Natural Resources.

The covered bridge by the mill is 140 feet long, with a clearance of 14 feet and is 12 feet wide. It is considered the bridge was begun before the Civil War but not completed until 1867. Joseph Lansmon, whose initials are carved over the east entry of the bridge, is credited with constructing the bridge. Time, automobiles, and floods took their toll on the old bridge, forcing the park to close it even to foot traffic. In 1998 the park began the process of a comprehensive renovation complete with replacement of many of the timbers.

Both the mill and the covered bridge are listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Jack Smoot, Historic Site Administrator for the park, explained that Bollinger Mill has something to offer every visitor, "Technology buffs can admire the intricate machinery and see some of it demonstrated. Historians can study nearly a century of regional history while outdoor lovers can relax and enjoy this rare, rural combination of gristmill and covered bridge in its original, scenic setting." Recollections of Burfordville of the 1930s

Let me take you back in time; the year was 1933 and I [Edna J. (Kasting) Ford] was 20. I worked in Burfordville for Marzilla Dockins. One son, 'PAL'mer, and wife Phyllis lived nearby with their two children, Ruth and Bruce. Another son, Francis, was ill with tuberculosis and I was their housekeeper and cook. I became acquainted with most of their neighbors.

Tom and Dorrie Summers operated a grocery store/gas pump, with living quarters within. Several of us would gather there in the evenings to sing and play music. It was cheap entertainment and we had lots of fun? 'Old Tom,' we called him, played the fiddle; Earl Proctor played the fiddle and guitar; and I also played guitar. Dayton Phelps, Earl Smith, Francis Dockins, Ruth Hardy, Charles Hillier and wife, and Dottie Kinder and others would join in the fun.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson operated a dry goods store/Post Office. The Wilson's young son, W.G. was ten. It later became the Community Building, but is now an antique/collectible shop called 'A River Runs Thru It' operated by John and Kathy Trimble, who live in the house next to it. I suppose they named it due to the frequent floods they must endure from the nearby Whitewater River. After I left the community, the Dockins' house was moved off their property. A new house was built in its place by 'PAL'mer and Phyllis Dockins, I assume. Also erected next door was a grocery store/Post Office.

Chester and Jettie Phelps lived next door to Marzilla with their three children, Virginia, Geneva Lincoln, and Carlin Phelps. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Phelps and children Okle and Dayton lived next door to them. When Earl Smith's parents passed away, he demolished the old house, building a new one in the late 1930s. He also bought the home of school teacher Cora Carvey. Around this time, the Baptist Church burned down. Now the Millersville Fire Station #3 is on this property. Earl and Elaine Smith donated ground where the new church was erected.

John and Alva Acup had a couple of children. John was night watchman at the Bollinger Grist Mill.

Earl and Lillian Proctor had a son, Billy. Earl worked for the County Roads. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hillier lived down near the river. Next to them lived Mr. and Mrs. Holmes and a daughter who later married Roy Cunningham from the neighborhood. Mr. Holmes worked as a blacksmith with Tom Allen. Their shop was across the street from Tom Summers' grocery. Next door to Summers' (previously the old Fulenwider home) lived Troy and Dottie Kinder and children Elizabeth and Troy, Jr. Troy was a mail carrier. Then there was Willie and Lena Peters' farm (previously the old Bowman home, now the Bangers.)

The schoolhouse burned down and was replaced with one erected in the 1950s. The Hahns lived next door and they sold eggs (now possibly a bed and breakfast.) Hattie Kinder and brother Earl had a farm near Burfordville. As you well know, Burfordville is home to Bollinger Grist Mill and covered bridge and park with the Whitewater River 'running thru it' (litèrally)! It was always a great place to swing from a rope in the tree, jumping into the water to cool off on a hot summer day (now is the rope still there?)! This little wide space in the road is but a little wider, being a draw to many visitors today as it was back then. Most of these older people are now deceased. Lastly, as you continue through the park, you may walk up a steep hill to the old McGuire cemetery.

Daisy, Missouri

Drum Town, the place where William Drum, a German emigrant from North Carolina, built his house and store, was located on one of the highest hills in northwest Cape Girardeau County. Drum Town no longer exists, but it is the location of Daisy today.

The first area store, established prior to the Civil War by Andrew H. Kinder and a Mr. Crites, was located east of Drum Town. When the partnership dissolved, Mr. Kinder built a new store closer to town in 1857. After the war, Mr. Kinder closed his store and sold his merchandise to William Drum. One of the next businesses to appear was John Thomas' blacksmith shop.

The exact establishment date for the church is not know, but the Methodist Episcopal South Church (New Salem Methodist Church) purchased 3.94 acres of land from the School District No. D., Township No. 4, range 11 East, on March 22, 1873, for $100. Trustees at that time were Calvin Drum, Marion Drum, and Francis Drum.

Around 1886, Chapman G. and Oliver B. Kinder opened a new general mercantile store in Drum Town. Because of community growth, the residents saw the need for regular postal service and petitioned for a post office. Chapman Kinder, along with Dr. S. S. Harris, circulated a petition suggesting that the new name should be Daisy, the name of the last baby delivered by Dr. Harris. Grass roots efforts worked; Daisy became the name. William W. Drum became the first postmaster in 1887, followed by Oliver B. Kinder in 1889.

Mr. E. W. Harris established Harris General Merchandise, became the postmaster in 1901, and operated a wheat elevator south of his store for the Cape County Milling Company. In 1905 William Ates, who had purchased William Drum's house and store, sold his store's merchandise to C. F. Hahs. Mr. Hahs, along with J. C. Stearns, established Hahs and Stearns General Merchandise. J. Otto Hahs designed and built steam engines for threshing machines in his machine shop. The Houck Cape Girardeau Northern Line came into town. Marshall L. Morton, appointed postmaster in 1895 and operator of the Hotel Morton, became the first agent at the Houck Depot.

From 1905 to 1918, the rail station became a shipping point for livestock, poultry and fruit that was being shipped for distribution in St. Louis or New Orleans. Because of ef-

They reside in Cape Girardeau County north of Pocahontas. Submitted by Karen Macke Yarbro

BIERSCHWAL – Heinrich "Christian" Bierschwalen was born Sept. 16, 1794 in Gross Lafferde, Germany. Christian was listed as a farmer from Werder when he married on Oct. 17, 1822 to Joh. Maria "Dorothea" Schrack, who died about 1838. According to Glen C. Randolph, the author of The Study of the families Bierschwalen, Bierschwale, Bierschwall, and Bierschwal, Christian second married Charlotte Doretta Kelpe between 1838 and 1844. They arrived on Nov. 11, 1844 on the Bark Diana at the Port of New Orleans with his four children. They immigrated with many other Germans who settled in the German area of southern Cape Girardeau County. Christian Bierschwall was listed as a weaver from Hannover on the passenger list. He became a charter member of the Zion Methodist Church near Gordonville, MO. Christian had the following children: Charlotte (1823-1899) who married Theodor Happle; John (1829-1861) who married Rosina Nabe; Louise (1836-?) who married Christian Kothe Jr.; and Conrad (1838-1916) who married Wilh. Henriette Grebe. Christian died in May of 1856.

Conrad Bierschwal farmed near Dutchtown. He and his wife Henriette had five children. They were Albert (1855-1856); John "Henry" (1858-1910), who married Dorothea Sander; Louise (1859-1861); John Conrad (1861-1932) who married Alvina Brakebush; and Anna C. (1863-1942), who married William H. Bartels. Conrad served in Co. B of the 56th Enrolled Missouri Militia during the Civil War. Conrad died April 21, 1916, and Henrietta died Oct. 22, 1904. They are buried with their infant children, Albert and Louise, in the Eggiman Cemetery. This cemetery is located on the old Bierschwal farm on Gopher Lane on Highway 25 south of Gordonville. It is now the Emil Nussbaum farm.

John "Henry" Bierschwal married Dorothea Sanders on April 29, 1880 and had eight children as follows: Bertha (1881-1946) who married John S. Neumeyer; Amanda (1883-1940) who never married; Emma (1885-1965) who married Steve Searcey (see Searcey sketch); Meta (1886-1906); Mary Henrietta (1889-1973) who married William George Kaschner; Henry Albert (1892-1968) who married Ada French; Clarence (1895-1954) who married Ida Dankel; and Charles Weston Bierschwal (1898-1954). The family took a covered wagon to Kansas to find work during the wheat harvest, but being unsuccessful, they came back to Whitewater, MO. Henry Bierschwal, John Neumeyer, and a Schlimme ran a grocery store called "Bierschwal's and Co.," dealer in general merchandise. Apparently the store went bankrupt about 1908. Dorothea died April 27, 1909, and John died Nov. 29, 1910, both of tuberculosis. They are buried in the Whitewater Methodist Church Cemetery. The three younger children resided in the homes of older siblings after their father died. Submitted by Dawn Dement Detring

HAHS – John Conrad Hahs came to Missouri in 1801 with the pioneer, George Bollinger, from Lincoln County, NC. He was granted 640 arpens of land on Big Whitewater, according to the History of Missouri by Louis Houck. The German/ Swiss families who came with Bollinger from the Carolinas, were a sturdy stock who were good farmers and used to hard labor. John Hahs' family was no exception. Houck's census of Nov. 1, 1803, for John "Hoss" inventory, Cape Girardeau County, was the following: 10 bushels of wheat, 200 bushels of corn, 80 lbs. of flax and hemp, 400 lbs. of cotton, 500 lbs. of maple syrup, 10 head of cattle and 4 horses.

Writings show that one of the oldest and most primitive mills erected by the early settlers in the area was located 1-1/2 miles from Sedgewickville at the foot of a hill. This mill erected by John Hahs shortly after settling here was known as the "pounding mill." A strong spring supplied the power for the mill, which could crush one-half bushel of grain at a time. Four families who resided in the vicinity used Hahs' mill to get their wheat ground. It is believed these were the Conrad Statlers, Peter Statlers, and a family of Seabaughs, along with the John Hahs.

The interior of this home is a log cabin built by John Conrad Hahs' grandson, John Hahs, in 1853. It was enlarged and is presently the home of the great-great-grandson of John Conrad, Cletus and wife Stella Hahs

According to several accounts of the day, the journey to America made by the Hahs family began in the country of Switzerland, probably moving to the Rhine Valley of Germany before starting the long trek by way of the Netherlands to America. The immense migration from the Palitinate area was the result of William Penn encouraging the German people to settle his land of Pennsylvania given to him by the King of England. The long arduous journey took months to float the Rhine River to the Netherlands and await a ship in England for the long ocean trip to America. It's amazing anyone survived, as the worst horrifying segment of the journey was the months on the open seas. Disease and crowded conditions took its toll.

It is not exactly certain when John's ancestor, Jacob Hahs, landed in Philadelphia; however, it is recorded that he moved from Pennsylvania before 1770 as he bought his first North Caroline land on Oct. 13, 1770 on Clarks Creek. With other land purchases made over the years, Jacob's land holdings grew to a total 1000 acres. Jacob had a brother Christian who also traveled the Great Philadelphia Wagon Road to North Carolina.

Jacob and his wife Elizabeth had four sons in North Carolina: Francis; Anthony, (both of whom remained in North Carolina); Christian who moved to Brown County, OH; and John (born c. 1754) who journeyed by wagon to Cape Girardeau County, MO in 1801. John's first wife, Christina Susanna, died and is buried in North Carolina. Records show John remarried an Elizabeth James (b. 1760 or 1770) on July 7, 1801 before coming to Missouri. John and Christina Susanna had three daughters and five sons: Barbara; Maria; Margaret; John; Jacob (born c. 1780s); Adam (born c. 1790); Francis; and Daniel (born 1800). It is believed John and Elizabeth were parents of Christopher in 1805 after moving to Missouri. Eleven people were living on John's farm in Houck's History of Missouri in 1803.

John Conrad Hahs' will, dated February 1809, reveals names of three daughters, Maria, Barbara, and Margaret, with the boys listed as minors. The will stated each daughter would receive one spinning wheel, a feather bed, dutch oven, and two cows. As the boys came of age, it was John's wishes they settle upon "the plantation" with the land divided upon the death of his wife Elizabeth. At that time, a public auction would take place and the money equally divided among the daughters and sons. Elizabeth and John's neighbor and friend, Peter Statler, were executors. Listed as witness was Samuel Weiberg, the minister brought by Bollinger to serve the new inhabitants of the Whitewater area.

It is wise to assume all "Hahs" families of Missouri and other states are a part of the lineage of John Conrad Hahs, pioneer who traveled by wagon from the North Carolina piedmont. Compiled by Beverly K. Hahs

MASON – The family of Edwin Augusta "E. A." Keeble Mason and Alice Faye (Burdette) Mason was not an old family of the area, coming to Jack-son in 1920-21 after moving several times early in their marriage. It is believed they found Jack-son when traveling back and forth between Ar-kansas and Tennessee to St. Louis to visit fam-ily. They saw the potential of a growing peace-ful community (population about 3000), which would be a good place to raise a family.

Edwin "E. A." was from an old political family on his paternal and maternal sides. His mater-nal great-grandfather Colonel Richard Henry Keeble (1831-1864) was killed at the battle in Petersburg, VA. His paternal grandfather, Wil-liam Newton (1827-1916) was a judge until 87 years of age; his father, Pleasant Peyton (1860-1941), was a prominent lawyer first for the "Cot-ton Belt" Railroad in Tennessee and Texas and then he moved to St. Louis around 1898 to open his own successful law firm where he practiced until he was 84 years old. E. A.'s only brother, Richard Henry Keeble, "Dick," was also a law-yer for the Arkansas Division of the Frisco Rail-road and later was a member of the House of Representatives, a Lieutenant Governor and a State Senator of Arkansas.

E. A. was born Sept. 2, 1888, in Murfreesboro, TN, and attended the private Mooney's Prep School. He then went to Barnes Business College in St. Louis. He married Alice Faye Burdette (1892-1949) in 1911, who was a teacher in Colfax, IL. They had their first child, brought him to the Processing Center in Cape Girardeau, MO. Susan was later employed at St. Francis Hospital in Cape Girardeau, MO. After a brief stay in Chaffee and Cape Girardeau, they Seyllers had a home built and took up residence in the Jackson area. Submitted by Steve Seyller

They made their home in the Brazeau Community and were the parents of Randolph, William, Lawrence, Mollie, Minnie and Roena. Roena Elizabeth died in childbirth when her daughter Roena was born. Dr. John McCombs and his wife took baby Roena into their home on North High Street in Jackson.

George moved his family to Jackson after the death of his wife and they lived in a large white house called the Sanford House. It was on a hill next to where the old swimming pool was in the Jackson City Park. George later moved his family to a large farm northeast of Jackson on Greensferry Road. He was killed in a farming accident on his farm in 1884 and his family was left without parents. The older children helped to raise the younger ones.

Lawrence Shaner family: Lawrence, Howard, Ilda and Ella.

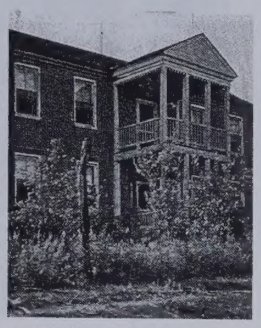
SHEPPARD – Located about four and a half miles northwest of Jackson on County Road 450 (R.F.D. 2 then), the 'home place' was built around 1851 by Isaac Newton Sheppard (1816-1881) whose wife was Mary Frances Randol (1824-1898).



Sheppard/Ford Homestead 1851-1964

The farm itself was purchased in the fall of 1811 by Isaac Sheppard (1775-1839) whose first wife was Margaret Cox and second wife was Mary Stout Lambert. Isaac Sheppard was Isaac Newton's uncle. In 1834 he sold it to William Howard, who in 1841 sold it to Isaac Newton Sheppard (1871-1926). The farm remained in the Sheppard/Ford family until 1964 when it was sold by Wilson "Bill" Ford (1912-1997), husband of Edna Jessie Kasting (1913-), and great-grandson of Isaac Newton Sheppard, to Ora Lee Hopkins west of Jackson.

The house (still standing) is a two-story brick. The clay bricks were made on site, and rocks from the creek carried by slaves and horse-drawn wagon were used for the foundation. A log barn was built across the creek at the time the house was built. At a later date a very large barn (still standing) and grainery were built by Bill's grandpa, Albert Chesley Ford (1844-1931), whose wife was Eunicia Rebecca Sheppard (1850-1936). The barn was built from popular trees cut from the field across from what was then Lewis Chapel. A springhouse and two silos were erected later. Both silos still stand.

Bill learned to farm the land from his grandpa A. C. and his father, Newton Dilworth Ford (1870-1942), husband of Ella Florence Sheppard (1871-1924). They raised various crops (corn, wheat, beans) and registered Hereford cattle. Edna raised a huge garden and chickens. Together they raised nine children, five of whom attended Robert's School, where their daddy attended through the eighth grade. The four youngest attended Jackson R#2 schools. Most all were active in Robert's 4-H Club and attended First Baptist Church in town. Bill was a member of Missouri Cattleman's Association, Cape County Shipping Association and Farm Bureau. When farming became less profitable for the Ford family, they decided to sell out, moving to town where Edna still resides today, with eight of the children living nearby: Wilson Dilworth "Billy" Ford (1938-1986); Margie Lee Welker (1936-); Carol Jane Lamb (1943-); Carla Deane Ford (1951-) and Joe Don Ford (1956-) of Cape Girardeau; Martha Lynne (Nick) Stoyanoff (1946-) of Troy; Dana Sue Ford (1940-); Ella Jean Pleasant (1949-); and Barbara Kaye (Sam) Sides (1953-)of Jackson; along with 16 grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren and one great-great grandchild.

Bill, Edna and all of their nine children were employed by Jackson Hosiery (Wayne Knitting Mills) at one time or another. From 1966 up to his retirement in 1979, Bill was supervisor of Klaus' Park and Cape County Park (north), and was instrumental in their development. Submitted by Ella Jean Plesant

Their third son, Alpheus Cowan Stevenson, was born on Feb. 3, 1852 and grew to manhood on his father's farm. He received a good education at the Fruitland High School and the common schools with a supplementary commercial course at Cape Girardeau. After finishing his education he taught school for four years. On Jan. 6, 1876 he was united in marriage with Miss Julia Boren, daughter of Hiram Boren of Cape Girardeau County. After Julia and Alpheus were married they resided for two years at Neely's Landing, after which he moved to Pocahontas, and served as clerk in a store during the winter and spring of 1879. They moved to the family farm where he resided until his death. They had seven children, three living to healthy adulthood: Hugh Roy (Jan. 2, 1885), Arthur Lang (Sept. 18, 1891) and Maple Oren (March 12, 1894). Alpheus and Julia were members of the Presbyterian Church, workers in the Sunday school at Shawneetown and members of the Grange.

STONE – The Nelson Stone family moved to Jackson in November 1956 to fill in for a local veterinarian who had been injured in a car accident and needed help with his practice until he recovered, about six weeks. At that time they had a 2-year-old daughter, Mara Beth, and a 6-week-old baby, Barry Nelson.

The six weeks passed with Dr. Stone becoming acquainted with many aspects of veterinary medicine he had not been doing before, while working in government meat inspection in downtown St. Louis, after graduating from Missouri University in 1955. During the next few years a statewide program to eliminate brucellosis in cattle and an outbreak of hog cholera among the swineherds occurred. All cattle had to be blood tested and cleared of brucellosis and all swine vaccinated to protect them from cholera. Those were long workdays, along with the regular workday of a veterinarian, making routine farm calls and treating small animals.

Nelson and June liked this area so well that after Dr. Wills was able to start work again, they stayed in Jackson to work with him in practice. In 1972 Dr. Stone became owner of the clinic, worked 37 years in his practice, also doing sale barn work for several years, and retired in 1994 because of health problems, and continues to live here. June did the bookkeeping for several years for the business after the children were in school. Before marriage she had attended Southwest Baptist College and taught school at Cross Roads in St. Francois County.

Another daughter, Libby Carol, was addec to the family in 1958, and a baby boy, Alar James, was stillborn in 1965.

The children received a good education ir Jackson Schools and liked to live here. Mara Beth often expressed the hope that Jackson would stay a small town; of course it has growr considerably these past years, as progressive towns do.

had friends there. George Weiss Sr. stayed on the farm and after his parents died he bought out the heirs' shares. He married Wilhelmina Lowes. They had eight children and continued buying land until his holdings were over 800 acres. As their boys married, he helped them acquire a farm.

Henry Weiss married Lula Heuer Weiss and had four sons, Clarence, Arnold, Louis and Norman. Their first son, Clarence Weiss, helped on the farm through his years at Central High School and Southeast Missouri State University. He received his Ph. D. in chemical engineering and worked at Buckeye Cellulose in Memphis, TN, until his retirement. Their second son, Arnold Weiss, also continued his education through Southeast Missouri State University, and received his M.S. from the University of Missouri-Columbia. He taught several years, his last years at Fruitland High School. He then worked as an auditor for the Missouri State Department of Liquor. Their third son, Louis Weiss, also continued his education through Southeast Missouri State University. He taught several years and his final teaching was at Jackson High School. He was an avid baseball player. He played semi-professional ball for three years in Texas. He played and managed the Capahas many years. He married Paula Wittrock and they had one son, Paul Louis Weiss, who lived in Cape Girardeau. Their fourth son, Norman H. Weiss, worked on the farm until college, served in the Air Force for three years, came home, graduated from Southeast Missouri State University, married and bought the farm.

Henry Weiss holding Louis Weiss on lap, and Arnold Weiss seated on the running board of a 1913 Model-T Roadster.

Henry and Lula Weiss farmed until their retirement. During their farming careers, Lula in a buggy would peddle their surplus eggs and butter in Jackson; this would take an entire day. When they bought their first automobile in 1913, a Model "T" Ford, she used it to deliver eggs and butter. This cut her time to half a day.

Lula was quite a prankster- here are two examples. When one of the boys wanted a button sewn on a shirt she would sew it on while they were wearing the shirt. Sewing lightly, she hit them in the stomach with her sewing hand. If you didn't jump, then the next time she would turn the needle in; you would jump that time! She also was an excellent rifle shot, better than all four of the boys. The three boys were target shooting. She came out and asked what they were doing. She took a shot and hit the target dead center at 35 feet. She asked for a smaller target. Arnold put a wooden match in the fence and she shot it in two at 35 feet! She had him do it again. This time, she struck the match and it lit. She handed the rifle to her sons and went into the house to fix lunch.

Henry was an avid foxhunter. He had excellent dogs and loved "running" foxes with friends, not to catch the fox, but for the music the dogs made. Lula was scared of mice. She kept traps set. If they didn't work she would take the .22 rifle and shoot them in the head. There are still several bullet holes on the quarter rounds in the house.

During Norman Weiss' first two years of high school at Jackson High School, the "bus" was a Model A Ford driven by Oscar Schweer. He would come out of the Clover Hill Road (now County 614) and go back in the "Lower Road" (now County 616). He loaded eight students in the Model A; it was somewhat crowded.

Norman Weiss married Viola Marie Koerber in 1949; they bought his father's farm. He farmed and worked for the USDA ASCS for 30 years. In 1933, their farm was certified by the Missouri Extension Service as a "Century Farm," one that had been in the family for over 100 years. Norman and Viola had three children: Mike, Chris and Carolyn.

Their first son, Mike W. Weiss, graduated from Rolla Engineering School as a petroleum engineer. He married Debbie Sebastian. He first worked in Texas; then Cairo, Egypt; Chicago; Kogland, Russia; and now in Louisiana. They have two children, Elizabeth and Jason. Their second son, Chris N. Weiss, graduated from Southeast Missouri State University and Missouri University. He married Lesa Holland. He worked in agriculture sales for two years, then went to Missouri University and obtained a law degree. He joined the Lichtenegger law firm and is now a full partner. They are located in Jackson, Marble Hill, St. Louis, and Vail, CO. Their daughter, Carolyn M. Weiss, went to Jackson High School. In her senior year she was killed in an auto accident in December 1976. Submitted by Norman Weiss

WEISS – Marie Bodenstein Weiss was born on Jan. 23, 1908, on a farm one mile west of Jackson. Her great-grandparents bought the land in the late 1850s. Her grandfather, Phillip, purchased it from his mother following the death of her husband, also named Phillip. Marie loved to tell how her grandmother Fredericka served fresh bread from her kitchen to hungry Civil War soldiers as they passed by. If they had any money they would leave a coin. In this way she increased the family income. Her husband served as a private in the Union Army. After his death in 1890 she received a widow's pension of $30.00 a month.

Marie's mother, Minnie, was born Jan. 11, 1873. She married August Bodenstein at the age of 18 and became a widow with three children, Alvin, Frieda and Edna, at the age of 30. A year later, in 1903, she married her first husband's cousin, William Bodenstein. They had three children, William, Marie and Mildred. Following the death of Marie's father in 1924, her mother continued to live on the farm until her death in May 1937.

Marie graduated as valedictorian of her high school class in 1926 and was elected to teach at Campster School for $75.00 a month starting in the fall. She was offered a summer job in the Jackson Exchange Bank for $1.00 a day, making her its first female employee. During August she was asked to continue working at the bank. Her decision was easy to make, as she was concerned with teaching eight grades in a one-room country school. She remained with the bank for approximately 11 years and never made more than $75.00 a month.

In 1929 she bought a new Ford Sedan for $718.00 and began dating Walter Weiss. They were married Sept. 23, 1935, and moved in with Walter's father and stepmother on a farm south of Jackson. While living there they had two daughters, Rosemary Weiss Gasper and Martha Weiss Maxton. Marie frequently recalled memories of the Great Depression. Arriving at the bank one morning the door was locked. Using her key, she let herself in and was told to go home. President Roosevelt had closed every bank in the United States. When the bank reopened she saw men crying over losing farms, businesses and homes.

In 1941 Marie and Walter bought a farm three miles north of Jackson on Highway 61. With the poor economy and the nation on the brink of war, friends and family thought they were crazy. But with lots of hard work their mortgage was paid off in six years.

Marie was well known in the community for her musical talent. She mastered the piano and sang in her church, school, and community choirs and frequently sang solos at weddings and funerals.

Marie and Walter moved to Jackson in 1987 after selling their beloved farm. Walter passed away on May 24, 1990, and Marie on Dec. 28, 1995, at Chateau Girardeau in the Health Center where their daughter, Martha, worked as a registered nurse. Submitted by Martha Maxton

WELKER – Wilbert Welker, the son of Jesse Welker (1886-1975) and Francis Shumer Welker (1884-1965), was born April 6, 1920, in Perryville, MO. Wilbert was the seventh of ten children. He had three brothers, Lawrence, Floyd and Glennon. His sisters included Ida, Beulah, Veronica, Clara, Frances and Hilda. Wilbert grew up on a farm near Perryville, MO. He attended school for only a few years before quitting to help out on the family farm. At the age of 18, he worked as a water boy during the construction of the old St. Francis Hospital in Cape Girardeau, MO. He later worked in maintenance at the hospital. His next job was at the Cape Girardeau Shoe Factory where he worked until he was drafted into the army. During WWII he was stationed in Hawaii and the Philippines where he served as a radar operator.

Stella Marie Brands, the daughter of John Brands (1883-1978) and Bernadette Brauer Brands (died in 1940), was born March 3, 1920, in Leopold, MO. She was the sixth of seven children. Her brothers included Henry, Frank and Ted. She had three sisters, Louise, Gertrude and Ann. She lived in Leopold, MO, until the age of 5, at which time the family moved to Portageville, MO, where her dad farmed. As a young girl, Stella worked as a child-care provider. At the age of 19 she moved to Cape Girardeau, MO, and obtained a job at St. Francis Hospital. She worked there for seven years taking care of newborn babies. She tells how there were so many babies that they fashioned beds for them out of drawers.

During WWII everyone was encouraged to write to the "boys" serving in the armed forces. Stella wrote to Wilbert for three years before actually meeting him. They were married April 7, 1947, at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Cape Girardeau, MO.

The Welker family, clockwise: Wilbert, Stella, Susan, Wib, Jim, Ed and Mary Anne, circa 1960.

Wilbert and Stella's first home was located near Sedgewickville on a small farm. Less than a year later they bought a farm near Gordonville, MO, where they have lived ever since. When they first moved to this farm they lived in an old two-story farmhouse, part of which was made of logs. A one-room school, called Needmore School was located just up the hill from the Welker farm. When the school was closed in 1955, the Welkers bought it, moved it down the hill and remodeled it into the home where they lived until 1969. At that time a new modern home was built.

Wilbert and Stella had five children. Susan (born 1848) became a teacher and married James Stoverink. They have five children and three grandchildren. Mary Anne (born 1949) became a nurse and married Jack Martin. They have three children and one grandchild. Edwin (born 1951) works for the Farm Home Administration and married Kathy Reynolds. They have three children and two grandchildren. Wilbert Jr. (born 1952) took over the home farm and married Ann Ansberry. They have three children. James (born 1955) became a teacher and is presently the assistant superintendent of the Jackson School District. He married Teri Weber and they have three children.

On the 160-acre farm the Welkers raised cattle, hogs and chickens and grew crops. They eventually turned their farm into a dairy farm. They presently still live on the farm but their son, Wilbert Jr, farms it. Submtited by Susan Welker Stoverink

WELLS – Jacob K. Wells was a teacher and a fellow with an ability to capture images of rural Missouri. He produced numerous watercolors, a few oil paintings and filled up stacks of sketchbooks during his life. In 1970 he began a three-year project to design and paint a mural measuring 40 feet by 21 feet at Kent Library on the campus of Southeast Missouri State University. In 1977 he collaborated with his friend Dr. George Suggs, a professor of history at the university, to provide watercolor illustrations to accompany George's text for the book Water Mills of the Missouri Ozarks. As a boy, his grandfather, Jacob Simmerman, introduced him to the workings of water mills in Bollinger County. It kindled a fascination for the beauty of the locations, sounds and mechanics of mills that never left him. He listed his hobbies as fishing, hunting Indian artifacts, observing nature, painting and drawing.

Jeanette and Jake Wells, wedding photo, 1943.

He was born in 1918, to Jesse King and Ibbia Simmerman Wells, in Marble Hill, MO, preceded in birth by his brothers Zahn and Webster, and sisters Marguerite and Myra Jean. In 1930 the Wells family moved from Marble Hill to Cape Girardeau, where Jake graduated from Central High School in 1936. He completed a Bachelor of Science in education from Southeast Missouri State Teachers College with a major in Fine Art and later earned his master's Degree in Art from George Peabody College in Nashville, TN (now a part of Vanderbilt).

He worked as a lineman for a telephone company and taught at Dogwood School in Mississippi County prior to enlisting in the Army in 1942. He served in the Signal Corps in the Aleutian Islands in Alaska. An injury sidelined him for a while to Fitzsimmons Hospital in Denver, CO. While on leave in February of 1943 he caught a train from Denver to St. Louis where he and his Jackson sweetheart, Jeanette Leone Wagner, were married. After his discharge from the Army in 1945, he returned to Jackson to work for the Wagner Machine and Welding Works and began working part time in the Cape Girardeau County R-2 School District. He was hired full time in 1947 and for the next 13 years taught elementary and secondary level art and social studies, was supervisor of elementary art, and assistant football and basketball coach and baseball coach. He was hire in 1960 by Southeast Missouri State College and the Wells family moved to Cape Girardeau. For the next 20 years Jake taught in the art department and was department chair for four years. He was a member of a number of teacher's associations and served terms as president of both the Southeast Missouri State University District Teachers Association and the Southeast Missouri State University District Art Teachers Association. History was another lifelong interest and he was a member and supporter of the River Heritage Museum Association, and the Bollinger County Historical Society. He was a recipient of the Dingeldein Award for Achievement in the Arts, Distinguished Service in Education, Excellence in Painting and Teaching and Alumni Merit Award from Southeast Missouri State University.

Jeanette was born in 1917 in St. Louis, the second child of Henry J. and Florentine Wolgast Wagner. She gradated from Jackson High School in 1935 and attended Southeast Missouri State College for one year. In 1942 she and some of her friends headed for California to enlist their womanpower in the war effort. Her aptitude for geometry and experience from her father's machine shop got her a position in the drafting department of Consolidated Vultee, an aircraft manufacturer in San Diego, CA. She returned to Jackson with Jake in 1945.

She and Jake had two children, Bert Nelson, born in 1946, and Jeanie Diane, born in 1952. Bert married Margaret Boos, daughter of Lee and Raymond Boos of Cape Girardeau, in 1974. Their two sons are Jesse David, born in 1979, and Jacob Lee, born in 1981. In 1984, Jeanie married Jack Troy, son of William and Kathryn Troy of Dyersburg, TN.

Jeanette was a caseworker for the State Welfare Office in Cape Girardeau for several years. For 20 years she weathered the intrusions and recessions of cancer by concentrating on things she enjoyed. She played piano and organ and she sang. She was active in the choir at Emanuel United Church of Christ in Jackson, was a member of the Cape Choraliers and music director of the Evangelical United Church of Christ in Cape Girardeau. Her eye for design and color and proficiency in geometry made her an extremely skilled seamstress. Bowling and cultivating roses were favorite hobbies and she was probably among the first people in Cape Girardeau County to take up yoga exercise.

Jeanette died Feb. 6, 1977; Jake joined her Aug. 1, 1999. They are buried in Russell Heights Cemetery in Jackson. Submitted by Jeanie Troy

To Don Charles Dehault Delassus, lieutenant governor and commandant-in-chief of Upper Louisiana, &c.:

The petitioner, Thomas Caulk, has the honor of representing to you that he is inhabiting this side (of the Mississippi) since some time, and has settled himself, with the permission of the government, in the district of St. Charles, and farming the land of Richard Caulk; and having made choice of a piece of land, therefore he has the honor to supplicate you to have the goodness to grant to him, at the same place, the quantity of four hundred arpents of land in superficie, a quantity which is necessary to comprehend the wood and water necessary. The petitioner, having the means of improving a farm, and having no other view but to live in submission to the laws and gain honestly his livelihood, hopes to render himself worthy of the favor which he solicits of your justice.

Your Great Grandparents

(as written by Julia Giesmann for her sister Katherine's family)

Friederich Welker born in Melle, Germany and Angelina Bohne also born in Germany, do not know the name of the place it was however some where in the northern part. They met coming to America on board ship, they came directly to St. Louis where she worked as a maid (housework), don't know what Grandpa did, his father was a school teacher. Then they had relatives who settled near Cappeln so he had a 40 acre grant to own which was a wooded hilly area. They got married and came out to their relatives (Grandpa's relatives, they were). Cut down the timber for a house, all men working together, had no floor in the house until our mother was born who was the third child. Grandmother was used to living in a town and had to get used to living in that primitive place, and all the furniture was made by Grandpa. I think he worked as a cabinet maker when he was real young. I remember some chairs that he made were so heavy I could not lift them. He made wooden shoes that is all they had, homespun wool for socks and other clothes as they had a big clumsy loom on which they wove the cloth used for all of their clothes, also later made rag carpets. I remember I had a woolen petticoat out of some of the cloth and a multicolored school bag (striped).
They made their own dye mostly red and brown. They had 8 children, 5 girls and 3 boys, the oldest son was killed by a runaway horse that he was riding when he was 14 years old. Another son died of TB, never married. When Mama went to school they only had a parochial school, Lutheran German in New Melle (so named because so many people that settled there were from Melle, Germany). She wore wooden shoes (same) as the rest. During the Civil War Grandfather was a home guard. None of the children could speak or understand English, Grandmother knew very little, that she learned the short time she worked in St. Louis. Grandfather was also one of the founders of the Evangelical church at Cappeln, he was the song leader as they had no organ or any one who could play one. I remember them well as I often stayed with them but not as much as your mother, she was very fond of him, so was I. She (grandmother) was a small person and so very neat with her clothes. She was a midwife after her own children were old enough to care for themselves. Aunt Mary was not married until she was near 40 years as she married her sister's husband after she (Louise) died, he had 4 children, your brother Leo stayed with one of them, they live near Emmaus while I write this. I think of many things and times while they lived on their little farm, sort of a fairyland for me. Mama told me of some of their experiences during the Civil War and how she had to go to St. Louis to do housework at a very early age. Her oldest sister would not go there as she helped on the land until she was married, the other brother being old enough by then to help. Mary and Louise worked at Emmaus which was the Evangelical Theological Seminary, as you probably know. After Grandfather died Grandmother stayed with her children, she died at our house in Augusta when I was 13 years old. My father was born in Orsnabruek Hanover Germany, came to America when 16 years old, an older brother was here at New Melle then, he did not go to school here but learned to read and write English and was a carpenter contractor. There are many houses in and around Augusta that he built and are still there, his father wanted him of come to America to avoid being in the Army there. Your father was in the Army, he told of some escapades he had, he came to Emmaus because his uncle, your Dad's mother who was a Saenger, and Rev. Sturm Sr. was a nephew of Mr. Saenger. I never know how they were related, not even cousins, at least not first cousins (Your Dad or Rev. Sturm). That is where your parents met. After Wm Haferkamp died she had to go to work, had 3 boys, Bill and Emmet stayed at Aunt Mary's near Emmaus. Wilfried stayed at my parents' house until your parents married (I was their bridesmaid). You should have a medal if you read this! Can't think of anything more about them. Mrs. Sturm from Berger, Mo I think was a Miss Aufderhaar, a very haughty lady and he a very serious minded man as I knew them when working at Emmaus. (She is 90 years old.) Our mother was a milliner and dress maker in Augusta. I remember how long it took to make a dress, skirts were lined, many gores long, dragging on the floor. She used to make some hats, people wanted them to fit tight on their heads, and last many years. We used to be glad when she would receive a shipment of goods sent by steamboat as there was no railroad then nor roads for fast travel.

The above Family History, as written by Julie Giesmann, was submitted for this newsletter by member Candace Staringer. Candace is serving on the Heritage Sign Committee. --Julie Giesmann (born 1885) was Candace's grandmather, and Elisa Welker is her mother.

Dear Barbara,

Your letters to the Perry County Court House were passed on to us by the staff as they do not have the personnel necessary to answer requests.

We have members who volunteer to do research at the Court House in return for a donation to the Historical Society.

I checked today while I was at the Court House for the information you requested. The marriage records for all four couples are recorded here. There is a Probate packet for Daniel Welker. This contains about 40 pieces of paper. There are about 21 which are of interest to a genealogist. You did not say if you are working on a family tree but the information you asked seems to point in that direction. There is also a Probate packet for Sarah Abbott but also a Will, so only about 4 sheets of the probate would be of interest along with 2 copies from the Will. There is nothing for Eliza A. Knox but there is a Probate for James Knox that states his wife is Ann Eliza.

If you would like us to copy any or all of these please let us know. There is a charge of .25 per copy plus $1.00 postage and we would appreciate a $10.00 donation.

Our Society has microfilm copies of the old Perry County Newspapers July 1862-1980. There are a few gaps in the dates due to no newpaper being printed during certain times.

I am enclosing some information on our organization plus a blank 5-generation chart. I know we have a couple of people working on the Welker line and they may be of some help to you.

Sincerely,

Pat Robinson

James,

My name is William Cobb and I live in Cape Girardeau, MO. My cousin and I have been doing Welker geneology for several years now but have only gone online last week.

I have your family. William H. Welker was a baptist minister in Southeast Missouri and was married to Sophie Bowman, daughter of William J. Bowman. William H. Welker was bor n November 20, 1846 and died April 12, 1889 and is buried in Old Salem Methodist Church Cemetery where all the other Welkers from the immediate area are buried. This is on rt. "BB" northwest of Millersville, MO in a community called Kurreville.

William H. is the son of Amos Welker and Sarah Welker Shell Welker. She and Wm. H. were second cousins and she first married Henry Shell. Amos and Sarah are also buried in Old Salem. Amos was born 1815 and died July 31, 1871. Sarah was born in 1820 and died October 23, 1890.

Amos is the son of Peter Welker and Sarah Yount. Peter was born in 1790 in Lincoln Co., NC (almost everyone with early roots in Cape or Bollinger Co. came from Lincoln Co., NC) married Sarah Yount on May 31, 1819 in Cape Girardeau Count, MO, Sarah Yount being the daughter of Jacob Yount and Anna Killian.

Sarah Welker Shell Welker is the daughter of Danial Welker. His wife is Lucinda but we don't know her maiden name.

Now, Daniel Welker, Peter Welker and my ancestor Henry Welker are all brothers, being the sons of Leonard Welker. Leonard was one of the original 20 families to settle Cape Girardeau County from a wagon train from NC.

Leonard previously lived in Union County, Pennsylvania. My Henry was baptised in the Dreisbach Reformed Luthern Church in Buffalo Valley, PA. We do not know Leonard's wife. Leonard was a member of the Frontier Rangers during the Revolution.
He seems to have left PA about 1787.

Unfortunatly I don't have my welker info on computer yet but if you forward me your street address I would be happy to copy what I have on paper and send it to you. I may not be real prompt about it because I currently work an hour away from where I keep my geneology but be patient.

Your

cousin,

William Cobb

Jim, am working on my Welker info and went back to find the note below. You state that William G. Cobb sent you information from Cape Girardeau. There is a chance that I will be in that area this summer and would like to meet William, if possible. I have attempted to find his name on switchboard.com and nothing. Do you know if he has moved or died? If he had a lot of information, you may have been the receiver of his information? Let me know what you can, as I would want to contact him beforehand, in the event I am in that area. My husband's gggrandmother's family comes from that area also. Look forward to hearing from you. barb

Cobb of Cape Girardeau MO contacted me with a wealth of information, and it seems to snowball from there, this week alone I've received three e-mails wanting information on the Welkers some I can help and others I can't, my Welkers are from PA, NC, and southeast, MO.*

I work for United Airlines in San Francisco, CA as a supervisor and have been with them for thirty-three years. Jim, am working on my Walker info and want back to find the note below. You state that William S. Cobb sent you information from Cape Girardeau. There is a chance that I will be in that area this summer and would like to meet William, if possible. I have attempted to find him on switchboard.com and hasbro. Do you know if he has a lot of information, you may have been the receiver of his information. Let me know what you can, as I would want to contact him beforehand, in the event I am in that area. My husband's paternal mother's family comes from that area also. Look forward to hearing from you. Dale Thank, William, you have filled in some blanks for me. One source spelled Rebecca's surname Roe, but in earlier years it could be either, just how the person writing it down heard it. As I research more on Daniel in Perry Co, MO will keep you up on the information.

We live in Oklahoma, both retired and have done genealogy for a number of years. Now teaching three genealogy classes as the local technology center here. I teach Basic Genealogy and Family Tree Maker Software and my husband, Jack teaches Genealogy on the Internet. Most of our children, grandchildren and great grandchildren live here, so we are busy with teaching, babysitting and keeping up with yard and church. I am trying to get as much as I can this summer on family history information before teaching again in the fall. I appreciate your reply and look forward to corresponding with you in the future.

Hi Barbara, I'm happy my site was some help to your Genealogy search for the Welkers and a connection to your Walchers, I've been researching the Welkers for about five years, the first year I put up the web site I didn't hear from anyone for over a year, and then one day a William G. Cobb of Cape Girardeau MO contacted me with a wealth of information, and it seems to snowball from there, this week alone I've received three e-mails wanting information on the Welkers some I can help and others I can't, my Welkers are from PA, NC, and southeast, MO.
All my research has been done on the Internet I have never been to a courthouse or sent away for any documents I wanted to see if it could all be done over the Internet.
I know there are some mistakes as in any family tree, and want to thank you for the correction of Elizabeth "Lucretia" Welker WALCHER, I have updated my web site to reflect this information.
Here is a little information on myself, I was born in St. Louis, MO and moved to a farm at the age of five in Bollinger County, MO about seven miles west of Marble Hill, MO and lived there until I was sixteen when we moved to Sikeston, MO at age seventeen I joined the US Navy and was stationed in California where I married my wife Jean and still live in California. I work for United Airlines in San Francisco, CA as a supervisor and have been with them for thirty-three years. Well, that's enough about me, I sure enjoyed your e-mail and wish my family would have had family reunions, but it seems that I'm the only one other than my wife that is interested in Genealogy.
I will check out the web sit you sent me, and if you would like to have my file on the Welkers let me know what format (MS Word or text file) and I'll send it to you.
I have your screen name on Pal Talk (Genbug) maybe we can talk sometime.
Stay in touch Cousin.

Ken, thanks so much for the reply. I am keeping your note in my database, if and when I find definite proof of the parents of my John D. Paddock I will contact you again. Could you do me a favor and send me the parent names of the 12 John Paddocks you do have and their locations--where they might have been living when that John was born. It would give me some clues to check out if anything was connected. Have you gotten any of your information from a published book? If so, would appreciate the name of the book(s). Again appreciate your reply.
Most sincerely.

There is also an Ebenezer Paddock in Montgomery County who died (1872) shortly after John. His heirs had the last names of Willis, also one of the heirs was Anna Mary Temple. I will be researching more on this information.
> > In the 1850 PA census, Susquehanna County, Franklin Township, page 126 (Image #5 on Ancestry.com), taken 21st of November 1850. John D.

Paddock (age 40) is listed with wife Julia (age 40) and children, Emily C. (age 12), Smith (14), Lucinda (16), also two others Sarah King (20) and David King (22). No relationships shown other than they all were born in NY or NJ, it is difficult to tell the handwriting.

In Jennie Marie's obituary, it is stated: "She was born near Columbus, OH and came to Montgomery County when she was eight years old with her father and his family. That year would be about 1854. So they must have lost Julia sometime between the census in November 1850 and 1854, but where? Possibly Susquehanna County, PA?

Pat Noble (patnoble@aol.com) lists on WorldConnect that her ancestor was Ella Paddock born to John Dunn Paddock and Julia Richards Stait (Mar. 1843). Ella was born about 1850 in Great Bend, Susquehanna Co., PA. I believe that her Ella and M. Ella listed in John's estate distribution might be the same person. Also she lists the D as Dunn and Shawn Phillips (sagewoodshawn@yahoo.com) lists on WorldConnect, an ancestor Ebenezer Paddock and Phebe Dunn having a son named John.

Also on WorldConnect, there are several database information who have listed the group of 6 children (Smith, Emma, Lucinda, Ida E., M.Ella and Jennie) as children of Zachariah Paddock. I am sending this information to them in hopes they will correct their databases and remove those children from Zachariah.

I am sending this email to those of you who I think may have a connection to this family. I hope you will respond, I look forward to hearing from you.

4. How to change to NOMAIL mode. There is no formal NOMAIL mode. All you have to do is follow the directions above and unsubscribe when you want the messages to stop, and then when you want them to start again, simply subscribe again.

5. If you'd like to post a message so everyone on the mailing list receives it, just send it to PADDOCK-L@rootsweb.com. It will then be sent on to everyone in both mail and digest mode. You don't need to send it explicitly to both.

6. It is imperative that you have some type of antivirus software installed, running and up to date on your computer. Rootsweb will not transmit a virus to you. However, by joining the list you will be 'exposed' to the other people on the list. One subscriber with a virus is a danger to everyone else. Virus software is only effective if it is ON and UP TO DATE. Up to Date means just that. New virus 'dat' files are created daily. You must download the latest and greatest on a timely manner. Once a day should be ok. Once a week may not be. Once a month is almost useless.

Rootsweb does not allow html coding or attachments to go through the mailing lists. Please set your email to only send Plain Text to the list. No fancy signatures, stationary, pictures or attachments will be sent through the server. If you get an attachment from another list member DON'T OPEN IT. Contact them first to make sure they sent it. This is how many virus epidemics spread

7. If you have additional questions or problems you may email the list manager, Pamela Paddock Arnold, at PADDOCK-admin@rootsweb.com.

My understanding John D. Paddock died in Montgomery
County, IL March
1911.  He came to IL about 1834 with some of his children who married my great-grandfather, Jennie Marie Paddock.  His estate inventory and distribution maybe online:
Emily A. listed as son of John D. Paddock
Emma C. has little in documentation as to being a daughter for any of the latter)
Orlando Stratton
Ida E. Pancock
M. Ella Paddock
Jennie Paddock

In the 1850 PA census, Susquehanna County, Franklin Township, page 126 (Image #5 on Ancestry.com), taken 21st of November 1850. John D. Paddock (age 40) is listed with wife Julia (age 40) and children, Emily C. (age 12), Smith (14), Lucinda (16), also two others Sarah King (20) and David King (22). No relationships shown other than they all were born in NY or NJ, it is difficult to tell the handwriting.

In Jennie Marie's obituary, it is stated: "She was born near Columbus, OH and came to Montgomery County when she was eight years old with her father and his family. That year would be about 1854. So they must have lost Julia sometime between the census in November 1850 and 1854, but where? Possibly Susquehanna County, PA?

Pat Noble (patnoble@aol.com) lists on WorldConnect that her ancestor was Ella Paddock born to John Dunn Paddock and Julia Richards Stait (Mar. 1843). Ella was born about 1850 in Great Bend, Susquehanna Co., PA. I believe that her Ella and M. Ella listed in John's estate distribution might be the same person. Also she lists the D as Dunn and Shawn Phillips (sagewoodshawn@yahoo.com) lists on WorldConnect, an ancestor Ebenezer Paddock and Phebe Dunn having a son named John.

Also on WorldConnect, there are several database information who have listed the group of 6 children (Smith, Emma, Lucinda, Ida E., M.Ella and Jennie) as children of Zachariah Paddock. I am sending this information to them in hopes they will correct their databases and remove those children from Zachariah.

I am sending this email to those of you who I think may have a connection to this family. I hope you will respond, I look forward to hearing from you.
Most sincerely,
Barbara Walcher Fulton

Before moving the family out to Northern Indiana in 1837, James Paddock (JR) Built a grist mill on the lot mentioned below. His old grist mill stones are now on display in front of the Van Buren Town Building, just outside Baldwinsville, Onandaga county, NY. He lost his shirt in the venture and that may have been a reason why he elected to move to the newly opened land in Laporte County, Indiana. Here, for those in his line, and who are really bored and in need of something to read, is the deed transaction for his property. More to come. The breaks indicate a few words which I was unable to transcribe. Have some pictures and articles about his activity in Onandaga CO, NY, and his grave site in Laporte County, IN, if any one is interested....

Deed by Susan Rogers to James Paddock
State of New York

Came before me on the fifteenth day of Oct 1832, Susan Rogers to me known to be the person within named, and who executed this deed, and acknowledged that she executed it for the use and purpose therein expressed--

PADDOCK

Tracing the PADDOCK line has been done with the help of many people, and the ancestry gets more interesting as we get back a few generations. But I don't want to get ahead of myself. Details will be added as we go along. Take a look-see at this first attempt to get a pedigree listed - - maybe you'll see a familiar name or two! If something needs to be corrected, or if you have something to be added, please send the information AND documentation/sources to the link (below) to send your message: Pat or Gene Rowell

Unlike some pages, this listing begins at the current generations, but for those still living, we might only display the gender of the child, "still living" as an adult, or -- for surname.

- Note:

Robert Paddock was born 1583-4 according to American records. He is recorded as being born in Stephenstown, Balrothery Parish, County Dublin, Ireland, younger son of John Paddock, blacksmith of Stephenstown and later of Tullygovan near Killany, Barony of Ardee, Couth Louth, Ireland by his wife Jane Jennings.
Robert died intestate at Plymouth, July 25, 1650 according to Plymouth Colony Records. Though he made no will, his widow Mary confirmed in November 1650 that on his death bed Robert had granted the guardianship of his son John to Captain Thomas Willet, who was later Mayor of New York. "Whereas Robert Padduk of Plym: lately decease did on his death bed give and dispose his sonne John Paddock aged about give years unto Captaine Tho: Willet to bee att his desposing and under his guidance as his own child: These presents doe therefore wittness that Mary Padduck the wife of said Robert Padduck doth condesend unto and allow of the said acte of her Said husband in the disposing of her Said sonne John to Captain Willet as aforesaid In Witness of the promises shee the Said Mary hath hereunto sett her hand and given way to have this present said writing entered upon publick Record." Mary Paddock then signed this by making her mark (an M). Robert inherited the blacksmith shop of his father in Kallany in the will of his mother made at Killany, May 15, 1607.
The name of the ship and the year of his emigration remain unknown. He may well have been in Plymouth by 1632, there having been two of his children entered in the Plymouth Colony Records born before 1636. In Plymouth Colony Robert was a blacksmith and at one time a constable. Robert Paddock was the Patriarch of the Paddock family in America. Robert Paddock was one of the Pilgrim Fathers, he was one of the early settlers of Plymouth, and was a smith by trade. He had a son, Zachariah, born in 1636, who was the ancestor of the subject of this sketch. Robert Paddock was probably a relative of Captain Leonard Peddock who was master of one of the ships that came to Plymouth in 1622, it being frequently the case in those times that names were mis-spelled. This is the origin of the name of Peddock's Island at the entrance of Boston Harbor. Branches of this family at the Revolutionary period were to be found in

- ID: I1922
- Name: Robert PADDOCK
- Surname: Paddock
- Given Name: Robert
- Sex: M
- Birth: 10 Sep 1584 in Stepshenston, County Dublin, Ireland
- Death: 25 Jul 1630 in Plymouth, Plymouth co., MA
- _UID: B1BBB8BD4EAA9A11D4B4908D8EA5E3A3C646
- Note:

Robert Paddock was born 1593 + according to American records. He is recorded as being born in Stephenstown, Balrothery Parish, County Dublin, Ireland, younger son of John Paddock, blacksmith of Stephenstown and later of Tallyproon near Killiney, Barony of Arklow, County Louth, Ireland by his wife Jane Jennings.

Robert died buriedat at Plymouth, July 25, 1630 according to Plymouth Colony Records. Though he made no will, his widow Mary confirmed in November 1659 that on his death bed Robert had granted the guardianship of his son John to Captain Thomas Willet, who was later Mayor of New York. "Whereas Robert Paddock of Plym: lately deceased did on his death bed give and dispose his sonne John Paddock aged about five yeares unto Captaine Tho: Willet to bee at his disposing and under his guidance as his own child. These presents doe therefore witness that Mary Paddock the wife of said Robert Paddock doth condescend unto and allow of the said acte of her Said husband in the disposing of her Said sonne John to Captain Willet as aforesaid in Witness of the premises shee the Said Mary hath hereunto set her hand and given way to have this present said writing entered upon publick Record." Mary Paddock then signed this by making her mark (as M). Robert inherited the blacksmith shop of his father in Killiney in the will of his mother made at Killiney, May 15, 1627.

The name of the ship and the year of his emigration remain unknown. He may well have been in Plymouth by 1622, there having been two of his children entered in the Plymouth Colony Records born before 1626. In Plymouth Colony Robert was a blacksmith and as one more a constable. Robert Paddock was the Patriarch of the Paddock family in America. Robert Paddock was one of the Pilgrim Fathers, he was one of the early residents of Plymouth, and was a smith by trade. He had a son, Zachariah, born in 1636, who was the ancestor of the subject of this sketch. Robert Paddock was probably a relative of Captain Leonard Peddock who was master of one of the ships that came to Plymouth in 1622, it being frequently the case in those times that names were mis-spelled. This is the origin of the name of Peddock's Island at the entrance of Boston Harbor. Branches of this family at the Revolutionary period were to be found in

Dear Barbara

Hope this finds you & your family well. Right now everyone in our family is doing good. Last may my 2 brothers both had heart surgery. One had a six way by pass & the other angioplastie on one artery. Then a nephew who is only 45 years old had a stroke. But thanks be to God they are all doing real good.

Hope you have a nice Christmas. My family will all be here Christmas eve. I have a grandson in the army in N.C. but he is supposed to get home I'm looking forward to that. He's been over a year since he was last home.

May God bless you. Keep in touch

Many blessings at Christmas and in the new year.

Dear Barbara,

Well I didn't get to spend as much time at the Hillsboro Court house as I wanted to but did go through some probate records. I just wrote off what I found as you had to go up 6 flights of stairs (no elevator) and it was really hot. No copy machine when you got up there. As I have a heart condition I just stayed up there till closing time. They are building a new Court house and all sure be glad when it's done.

I also went to a Mormon Church library in Litchfield. Found some on some Temples but I am going to have to have more Proof on these before I give them to anyone. They merit the help I thought they would be. But they were nice and really tried but just didn't have enough to go on A lot of names but don't say who the parents are. Went through 2 cemeteries to find some of my mothers people It was in the 90's and we ahant cooked. When your working on both parents & them my husbands parents it takes in a lot of names.

I didn't have time to find out ahant a Montgomery County history so will do that next time I go. We had too many places to go in a short period of time. We left Kellsboro and went to alton Ill. (down by St Louis) to one of my husbands brothers & from there we all went to Carthage Mo. to the Precious Moments Chapel and then to Stafford Mo. to an animal park that you drive through. Then we had to head back home as my husband had an appointment he had to keep.

Well Babara I have several more letters to answer so will close for now. Look forward to hearing from you and when ever you have time I would like the rest of Aunt Jennies family when you are able to put it together and in the meantime if I learn any more ill send it on to you. Take care and May God Bless you and yours.

Love Frances.

Dear Barbara,

Was glad to get your letter and the information. Thanks so much. am sending you what I found out on Dora Temples family. I found her sons name in Kilshaw Court House and I contacted him over the phone. Then he wrote me & sent this much on their family.

I know what you mean by genealogy taking over your house. It has mine since 1991 but I do enjoy it.

I believe you are probably right on the names in Ebenezers Will as being his daughters & grandchildren but I'm like you who is Anna Mary Temple? One been told Abrahams wife was Ann Miriah but haven't proved anything yet.

We took a trip on Sept 3th to North Carolina, Virginia & West Virginia. Had a real nice time. The mt's through there are sure pretty. Went to see Biltmore Estates. owned by the Vanderbilts. It is beautiful. Can you imagine living in a 255 room house. It is furnished as in the time the house was built. You only get to see 50 rooms as it isn't all open to the public. Some rooms are not re-done.

We rode on 2 different train rides & it was fun as well as seeing pretty country. Went through a cave and done some shopping. Also went through an old Fort of Indian war times.

Went to Cherokee Village & through the Cherokee reservation. And up on the Blue Ridge Parkway of N. Carolina. We went up on Grandfather mountain. Walked across a swinging bridge across a gorge a mile high. Then on the mt. Was a bear habitat had fun watching them beg for peanuts. Lots of people feed them. Just seeing all the beautiful country meant a lot to me.
Well Barbara I must close. Have a lot to get caught up on since our trip. I worked in the yard all day yesterday & sure have sore muscles today. Am redoing some of my flower beds so I won't have so much to do in the spring. Am getting to old for all this yard work.
Look forward to hearing from you. Am working on Abraham temple right now so if I learn more will let you know. Hope all is well at your house. May God Bless You & yours.
Love Frances.

Barbara.

Dear Barbara,

I received your New years letter yesterday and was glad to hear from you but was so sorry to hear about all your troubles. You have my deepest sympathy on the loss of your father. Your father had what they said my mother had. She lived 2 years from the time she had her 1st stroke. She just kept having mini strokes until her death.

Congratulations on your new grand daughter. Children are such a joy and bring so much happiness in our lives.

We had a terrible tragedy last June 8th. My brother John's

(Jessica Gray)

12 year old grand daughter was killed in a farm accident. She fell in a Augur and was cut so severely she bleed to death before they could get her to a hospitol. She was helping her brothers with feed and someway slipped & fell in the augur. Her little 5 year old brother pulled the plug when he heard her scream or it would of chewed her all up. It is hard for the family to understand why it had to happen. But we just have to ask God to help us and give us peace of mind.

I pray 1995 will be better for all of us. May you see a brighter year also. Keep in touch and may God Bless all of you. Love always Frances

Dear Barbara.

It has been a long time since I have heard from you. I hope you & your husband are Well. We are fair. My husband fell last week and pulled the muscles & tendons in his shoulder so he isn't feeling too good. As for me I'm doing Shitter but have had a bad time on the starting of fall. I have a hiatal hernia & it has given me a lot of trouble one day when it was acting up I had to go to the emergency room at the hospital. It is just like you having a heart attack when you have a spell with it. All your stomach muscles go into a spasm. But thanks to the Lord above I'm doing better.

Hope you had a nice Thanksgiving. Our family was all here. Even our grandson who is in the Army got to come home. He won't be home for Christmas though. I guess we will all have our Christmas at our oldest sons house this year. He said he wanted to have it to make it a little easier for me & I sure do appreciate it. It will be the 1st Christmas ever that my family hasn't all been at our house since our children were born.

How are you doing on your genealogy? I haven't got to do much this summer as I just didn't feel like it. I still look forward to hearing from you. All I'm interested in is Aunt Jennys family. The other Walchers wouldn't be related to me.

I'm still trying to find out my great grandmother Temple's maiden name. I keep coming up blank and don't know just where to try next. Anna M. is all I have. One of my fathers cousins [daughter] said it was Anna Miriah but I can't find any proof of it. I wish I could go to Columbus Ohio but I doubt if I ever will get to [redacted]. If my father were living he would be 110 years old. Time has sure flew by But then I'll be 68 this month.

Well Barbara I must close for now. Let me hear from you. I think about you & wonder how you are. I wish we could meet. May God Bless you & your family & I pray you have a most beautiful Christmas. And may the coming year bring you much joy.

Love always Frances.

May God make your Christmas
as bright as His star, as perfect as His peace, and as warm as His love.

Love

Dear Barbara,

Well Im still trying to find out my great grandmothers maiden name. I know it was Anna M. I was told the M. stood for Miriah but I don't have any proof. all I have found so far is Anna M. Temple.

I may have found out who the Anna M was in the Ebenezer Paddock papers. I found another Abram Temple from Nokomis whose wife was Miria. I was real excited until I read the Childrens name. which are. Alvan, James, Sarah, Maria, Lucy and Mary. I think this Anna M. Temple may have been the wife of this James Temple since I found this newspaper clipping where an Ann M. Temple died. She wasn't the wife of our Abrahams son James as her name was Anna Maria Sawyer.

I feel this other Abraham must of been a Cousin to our Abraham. although the other name on the Census record is Abram. But that was short also for Abraham sometimes.

I hope Im making some sense to you. It's hard to get this all in words when Im writing & not being able to talk to you in person.

I have wrote to a Mormon library in Ohio hoping to find out more on the Temples. I haven't heard from them but I haven't given up on them as yet.

My sister keeps asking me if I have heard anymore from you. I keep telling her you're trying to get it all together and will send it as soon as possible. I know sometimes when I get anything new it takes me a while to get it together for those in helping. But when your not doing research it is hard to know how long it takes sometimes. She got very excited when I told her I had found you. She thought I was joking at first

I found in the Litchfield Library this quote. Mary Anna Temple. Born 1841 died Sept 23. 1908 age 67, 10 mo. 5 & 8 days. This must be the same Temple lady in the news clipping. But the name is reversed.

Well Barbara I'll close for now. I have some others letters to answer. I'll keep searching and look forward to hearing from you. Good luck & May God Bless you.

Love Frances.

Dear Frances,

It was so good hearing from you and the information you got in Hillsboro. On the basis of your sharing the Ebenezer Paddock name with me, I wrote the Illinois Regional Archives Depository (IRAD) in Springfield for his will. I will make a copy on Monday and enclose it with this letter. We now have some other names to go on...

What do you think about the Willis name? Perhaps Catherine ($200) was a daughter? Benjamin and Sarah Jane ($100 each) could be her children, since amount is different than Catherine's. Sarah Jane Hawkins ($200) another daughter? But Anna Mary Temple ($50) ???? who? Maybe with two of us working on it, we'll figure it out!

Also have written for marriage info for John D. Paddock and Sarah Jane Temple and the complete probate packet for John D. Paddock. Your information was so valuable to me. I cannot say thank you enough. Will share copies with you of whatever I get.

IRAD gave me some other ideas on Ebenezer...will copy their letter along with the will.

Better close and get to bed. Seems genealogy have taken over in this household lately. We are going to a workshop tomorrow here in Bartlesville. Look forward to hearing some new ideas.

Hope all is well with both of you.

Much love to your cousin.

Sincerely your cousin,

Barbara

Dear Ms. Fulton:

Thank you for your interest in the Illinois Regional Archives Depository System (IRAD).

In response to your letter of 28 August 1993, we searched the Montgomery County Probate Will records and were able to locate a Will for Ebenezer Paddock. As requested, enclosed are copies of the documents found.

We Also searched the State Wide Marriage Index; but, unfortunately, we could not find a reference for him. The IRAD system does not have burial records for Montgomery County, the County Clerk may still have burial permit records, and the Montgomery County Genealogical Society may have a Cemetery Inscription record.

The Montgomery County Genealogical Society may also have a copy of the Montgomery County History which may list Ebenezer Paddock.
We also searched the Public Domain Land Tract Sales for Montgomery county, Unfortunately we did not find Ebenezer Paddock.

In order to search the Montgomery County land records, and the birth records for John D. Paddock we would need a smaller time frame in which you would expect those records to show up. ie. When was John D. Paddock born? And, when do you believe Ebenezer Paddock purchased, or sold land?

The address of the Montgomery County Genealogical Society is as follows:

Montgomery County Genealogical Society
Box 212
Litchfield, IL 62056.

Also enclosed is additional record resources with the address of the Montgomery County Court House, and your self addressed envelope. The return postage is paid for by the Illinois Secretary of State.

In order to conduct a search of the IRAD holdings, researchers are asked to provide the following information:

1. The full name of the person they are researching;

2. The approximate year when this person is expected to appear in a record;
3. The county which created the record;
4. A record title type to search.

Researchers are also asked to limit their requests to two (2) names at a time and to wait for a response to their first request before submitting additional requests.

For your information, also enclosed are the IRAD brochure, research policy sheet and family research tips sheet concerning the various records and services available in the IRAD System.

Thank you again for your interest in the IRAD System. If we can be of any further assistance, please feel free to contact us again.

Sincerely,

Dennis E. Spohrer

Dear Frances,

Just a note, recently on the computer bulletin board my husband, Jack found a Duff. Thought you might like to correspond with her.

I am still in the process of getting some of the Walcher information together for you. Have taken one picture to the photo shop and have another which I think you will like to have. So don't give up on me.

I really appreciate all the information you have sent to me, and looking forward to hearing from you after your Hillsboro trip.

Must close and get this in the mail.

Sincerely your cousin,

Dear Francis,

Please forgive me for not writing before now. This has been a busy, busy summer. With working all day and our company in the process of being sold, days at work are very hectic. Not much time to do much personally. I too have been fightin a virus and been off work for a few days. Anyway wanted you to know that I had received both packettes and they are wonderful. I can't believe you only have been researching since 1991!

I have no recent family picture but hope to have one after the daughter who lives in Oklahoma City comes home. Seems we have a time getting everyone together at the same time.

As a suggestion for your Hillsboro trip, you might check the probate record for John Paddock, since he died leaving a family, I feel there might be something there, but I would doubt that there is a will, since he died so young. Also the tax records for the county are a good place to look to see exactly where they lived.

You might also check the Hillsboro library, since it is the county seat. They may have a history of Montomgery County that would be helpful. Country histories were written by companies coming through to make money. They usually have information on prominent families and how the county was settled, etc. And many times tells facts which are not on record anywhere. If you do do find information, please make a copy of it, a copy of the cover page for the book in which it located, and where you found the book. It helps to document the information found, so we both look the same place for information.

I feel that I have given you very litte for all that you have given to me. Thank you for the copies of the pictures they are wonderful.

As soon as things calm down a bit with my life, I will get back into the researching and will drop you a note from time to time regarding. Again thank you for all you have shared, it is very special to find a cousin like you.

Sincerely,

Aug 6. 1993

Dear Barbara,

Maybe I shouldn't wonder but I do keep wandering if you got the 2 envelopes I mailed you. I hope you got them o.K and that they were in good shape. I have gotten some mail on my genealogy that got sorta beat up in the mail. Since it has been several weeks I thought I'd check with you.

Hope all is well at your house. We are having some work done on our house. Badly needed repairs and had our driveway black topped so things have been kinda hectic here. Then on July 24 my husbands mother passed away and we were out of town a few days. When we got home I took a virus & was under the weather a few days.

Im planning on going to Killeen next week end to my brothers and while Im down there I plan on going to the Court house to see if I can find out anymore on the Temples or Paddocks. There are so many unanswered questions. If I learn anything new ill pass it on to you.

Looking forward to hearing from you. Take care and May God Bless you.

Love

Frances.

Dear Barbara,

I had an extra Copy made up of my Duff Genealogy and went to the Library yesterday after I talked to you and got a few more pages Copied so I decided to get it in the mail to you today.

The pictures that I run through the Copy machine I do not have negatives of. I was given a Copy like this I'm sending you. I do have a few more pictures that I'm having made for you. and will send them as soon as I can get them back.

I started my genealogy in 1991 and have really enjoyed it and enjoy helping others. I sent to Ks. for Jessup death record after I couldn't find anything on her here. after I got that & had her Birthday & death date I sent to Wellington Ks to the Library for a newspaper clipping on her death that gave me names to go on. So I started calling the operator for names and ph numbers and got Darno Walker you gave me Fern Hylton name and as I told you she gave me yours. I don't know if you are interested in all the Duff history but since I had this copy made decided just to send it to you. I got a lot from Marilyn Duff in Wisconsin. She has done a lot of research. Of course the Temples fit in her line so I have had a hard time tracking down what I have.

On the Paddock's Jennys father was John H. Paddock and I have it proved it yet but I feel his father was Ebenezer Paddock. I want to go to Kelsboro again and do some research on this.

I am doing my fathers family, my mothers family & that of my husband father & mother. So I keep busy, try to keep with some of my hobbies also I like to sew, crochet and write poetry. I collect rag dolls & teddy bears which I make and collect sea shells. That's just a little about me. I'm a born again Christian and go to the Church of God (now penecostal).

We have 2 sons, 1 daughter, 10 grandchildren & 2 great grand daughters. Im on page 63 of my information. This information is all marked for me. in the heading where it says Grand Parents & greats & the little * to show the next generation.

We live in a little community between Peoria & Pekin Ill. We moved here in 1951 when my husband came here to work for Caterpillar. We bought our home & have been here ever since. I was born & raised at Raymond Ill.

I hope all Im sending you is easy to understand. I don't type & have never done any thing like this before 1991 so I have just learned everything I know on my own. I like to try and bring my history up to date but it's hard sometimes to get people to cooperate. So there is a lot of gaps in names & dates. When you write to people I have found you just take what you get and are very thankful for it. I have called some & ask for dates & names they leave out & as a whole if they know they will give you further help. But it makes extra work when you have to contact people more than once. When you have never done genealogy you don't realize what all it entails. I have went through records at Court houses wrote lots of family members. went to libraries and tramped through Cemeteries. But every time you find at least one thing it pushes you on to find more. And I love to share with all who are interested. The Temples Page 87 would be your Ancestors also. I haven't been able to find out Anna Marys maiden name. Some say her middle name was Miriah but what I found in the Court House it was Mary. I have a dress that belonged to her. It was given to me by a relative who no longer wanted it. I would love to be able to find out When She & Abraham married as this was supposedly her wedding dress. So I don't know just how old it is. She must of been tall & thin as the dress has a very small waist.

Well Barbara will close & go get this mailed. Good luck & God Bless and I look forward & hearing from you. Love Frances. PS will send more pictures.

Hope you got your other packet I sent ok.

Sat. June 3, 1993

Dear Barbara,

Thanks so much for the pictures & information. I am so glad I found you. I have always wondered about Aunt Jennie's family and when I started my genealogy I told my husband I knew she had to have descendants if I could just find them. Well to tell you the truth it is an answer to prayer for I ask the Lord to show me how to find her family and it took some time but things all fell into place after I got her death record & knew when she died. I remember my father & his brother Bert going to Kansas to her funeral but I couldn't remember the year. So I had the Court House search on a ten year search from 1939 to 1949. (in Wellington Kansas)

You ask in your letter if I had any documents on Sarah Jane Temple. Im sending you all I have on paper, is a clipping of when she died. She was my fathers mother & I know he knew her last name (maiden name) for sure. I wrote to Columbus Ohio where she was born but they couldn't produce a birth certificate for me.

You wanted to know if there were any Ralphs in our family. The only one I can think of is my cousin Ralph Bennett son of Bertha Duff Bennett and he is deceased.

I believe Jenny Paddock Walcher must of been born at Nokomis as that is where the Paddocks were from. Anything I can answer for you I will be glad to do so. My brother & sister were thrilled that I found you also. One brother Charles & my sister Vernetta are not into this genealogy very much. But Lorraine & John are as excited as me when I find out something we didn't know before. I am going down to the Kellehers Camp house some time this summer & dig some more. Just haven't been able to get away yet. My husband fell on March & damaged a nerve in his left arm. So he just got released from taking treatments 2 & 3 times a week so now maybe we can get away.

Im sending yous all I have on Sarah Jane Temple's brothers & sisters. They have been hard to find and I still have a way to go on them.

Under Chloe Temple Sawyer her son Homer who had the six daughters 4 of them are still living but they are getting old & can't remember much. So Im hunting for someone who I hope has some records. The picture of Chloe & Asa Sawyer isn't very good but the original which my sister has is real faded out.

Im the other Pictures I had an extra one of Jennie & her half brothers & sisters so you can give it to your Cousin Carol. And when you gals get your book done Please let me know.

Well Barbara I'll close for this time I have about 5 more letters to answer. Look forward to hearing from you. Thanks loads & may God Bless you & yours.

Love Frances.

Send me a snap shot of you & your family if you have one.

She called at lunch time on Monday, June 28, 1993. Talked only a few minutes. Said that Fern Arnspiger had given her my name. She had gotten Darno's name from Jennie Marie Paddock Walcher obituary from a Wellington newspaper. Wanted to know if I was a relative of Jennie...She is a Duff. When Jennie's father, John Paddock died, her mother, Sarah married Basil Duff. Francis is a descendent on the Duff side. Jennie was a half-sister to her relative. ??

Stated she did all of her genealogy by hand, no typewriter or computer. Started putting their family genealogy together about three years ago with the aid of her daughter.

Great Grandfather George Dillard Duff was born in Gibson County Indiana in 1804. He came to Montgomery County. South Litchfield township in 1852. As far as I know he died in Indiana and is buried there. I dont know if he moved back there or was visiting. But he did own land in So. Litchfield township.

Grandfather Bazzle Duff bought land in Montgomery County, Zanesville township on Aug 3. 1880. And lived there until he died. He was born in 1847 and died at his home, on May 30. 1908.

My father Ellis Duff was born april 16. 1884 on his father Bazzle Duff home

Place. He lived there 58 years of his life
He died at Waggoner, Okl at his Son John's home on Feb 20. 1962.
My ancestors were all farmers.
I was born in the house my grand father had built in 1888 and lived there until I was 19 years old when my father & his brothers & nephews & nieces sold the old Duff Home Place.

The Duff place. Built in 1888.

History

My Grandfather was Bazzle Duff. No middle name and was called "Baz" He was born in Montgomery County. Ill. He married Sarah Jane (Temple) Paddock on Feb 21. 1877. Jenny Sarah's daughter would of been 5 years and 7 months old when they married. When Jennys father died Abraham Temple, Jennys Grandfather was made her guardian & when he died Robert Klipon was her guardian (I found this in the Court House at Hillsboro Ill.)

Robert Klipon I believe was married to Louisa Temple, Sarah's sister and an Aunt to Jenny. (I haven't Proved Robert being Louisa's husband yet but I know she was married to a Klipon)

On aug 3. 1880 Bazzle & Sarah bought 72 acres of land. It was South of Raymond Ill. Zanesville township. Montgomery Co. There was a 2 room log Cabin on the land. With a dirt floor. Abram, Ellis (my father) and Bertha were all born in this log Cabin. In 1888 Bazzle had a new home & barn built on this land. This house is where I was born & raised. My father lived on this Place 58 years of his life. after his sister Bertha died it was sold. He lived on another farm for a little over 2 years when he & my mother were first married & then my Grandmother Duff moved to Litchfield & my father & mother moved back on the Duff place.

Bazzle died May 30. 1908. He had diabetes and he hurt his big toe. It would not heal and so the Dr. took off his toe. It did not heal & he had to have his foot amputated, then his leg. Still no healing and gangrene set in & he died. All of his amputations were done at home on the kitchen table used for a operating table.

Hi Ron, My search for your AZ info was not hi-tech! I looked in the 1993/94 issue of US West phone directory of " Mohave County and Colorado River Area" which includes Kingman. The only DUFF I saw were:

DUFF, D 1721 Avalon Av, Lake Havasu City (602)680-0907
, Irene Parker Dam (602)667-3552

Of course unlisted #s are not shown.
Hope someone else was more productive.

Dear Francis,

It was so wonderful to talk with you at noon yesterday. I am so glad it was a day I went home for lunch.

I am enclosing copies of the some of the information you are seeking. It is the early information beginning with Jennie and Charles Daniel Lincoln Walcher and their children. The remainder of the Walcher family is "in the process", but as soon I have it together, I will mail it to you. I have included my family and an ancestor chart to help you know where I fit into the family tree.

I cannot believe the timing on your call, it was just two weeks ago that Fern and I were together discussing our family. She is a descendent of A.M.B. Walcher. The five sons of Jennie (plus a few more of the Walchers) have had a reunion almost every year since 1937, it is held in the Wellington usually the first Sunday in May. At reunion several years ago, I asked the Walchers to complete family group sheets (it has been easy with some...difficult with others). I have put a notebook together with these sheets, and now we (a cousin, Carol Hunt (also a descendent of Jennie & Charlie and I) are working on a book on the Walchers. Carol lives in the Wellington/South Haven area and has better access to calling and seeing "the Family". We are targeting the next reunion, May 1994, to have a rough draft of the book.

You mentioned that you had a gotten Darno's name and then Fern's from a death notice in the newspaper. I find after going through my clipping, etc. last evening that I do not have the newspaper clipping. Would you mind copying it and mailing it to me? I am sending you copies of pictures and clippings which I feel you would like to have. Grandpa Charlie had a poultry business in downtown Wellington. I have Carol looking for a picture of the business, if you would like...if and when we find it...I will send you a copy.

I am sure I will have other questions of you later, but here are a few now:

> I believe you said Jennie's father, John Paddock, died and her mother Sarah married Basil Duff. On Jennie & Charlie's marriage licence (enclosed) Sarah name is listed Sarah Temple, so I am assuming Temple was her maiden name? Do you have any documentation on this? Her death certificate (enclosed) lists her birthplace as Montgomery County, Illinois, but I know death certificate information is only as good as the person reporting, that was Uncle Ralph her son. However, he was gone by the time we started this information collecting. Are there any Ralph's in your family...seems names are repeated so much through these families.

And as always I will glad to share information with you. I am very excited (as you are or you would not have called) in finding "lost or hidden information". I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

month later, the number was up to the 129th.

By late November 1862, after the harvest season, Illinois had 125 Infantry Regiments, 16 Cavalry, and 30 Artillery batteries. The total was 20,000 men in excess of the Union's requested quota for the State of Illinois

The Fall of 1863 saw the enlistment of the first Illinois colored Infantry Regiment: the 29th US Colored Infantry. The Regiment left Quincy, IL in April 1864. In all, Colored troops from Illinois joined 22 distinct Military Units.

The state of Illinois resorted to the draft [or conscription] in late 1864. Of the 259,000 men who served for Illinois, only 3538 men were drafted. An additional 55 men choose to pay the $300, a legal means to avoid the draft.

Only New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio had more total men in the service.

Men from Illinois enlisted in regiments recruited in other states, including at least one Confederate company. Some of these were composed almost entirely of Illinois men and were eventually transfered to Illinois and renamed as new Illinois regiments.

Illinois Infantry, Cavalry, and Artillery Units

Illinois responded to President Lincoln's first call for troops with the 7th-12th Infantry (as well as Artillery and Cavalry). Regiments were numbered in order of formation, beginning with 7. In respect for 6 Regiments that served from Illinois in the Mexican War, 1 through 6 were not used.

Regiments 7-12 were enrolled twice, once for 3 months, then for 3 years. Most of the rest were enrolled for three years, except for 67-71 (for 3 months in mid-1862, primarily for guard duty in Illinois), 132-143 and 145 (in 1863-1864 for 100 day guard duty at forts within Union occupied Confederate territory) and 144 and 146-156 (1 year duty).

By August of 1861, Illinois had enrolled men in the 7th through 55th Infantry Regiments. Some men had difficulting getting into Illinois Regiments and joined Regiments from other states. By the end of August 1862, Regiment Numbers through 116 had been or were forming. Just one Illinois Regiments in the Civil War were numbered in order of formation, beginning with the 7th Regiment. None were officially called Mounted Infantry, though several were mounted for part of their service.

Change in Non-Illinois Resident Research Fee Policy

Effective July 1, 2003, the Illinois State Archives is required to receive, from all out-of-state or non-Illinois residents, a $10 fee, prepaid and nonrefundable, along with all research requests before those requests may be honored. That fee will entitle the requester to up to 2 unofficial, non-certified copies of the records requested if those records exist.

We hope to have a means to accommodate payment for out-of-state or non-Illinois residents on our Web site in the near future. Until an online form is available, out-of-state or non-Illinois residents should mail requests along with the appropriate fee to:

Illinois State Archives
Reference Unit
Margaret Cross Norton Building

This database of Illinois Civil War Veterans indexes the first eight volumes of the nine volume publication, Report of the Adjutant General of the State of Illinois. (The ninth volume lists veterans of Black Hawk, Mexican, and Spanish-American Wars.) This 1900-1901 publication, originating from the rosters maintained during the Civil War by the Illinois Adjutant General, is the result of an 1899 Illinois statute mandating that a corrected version of these records and subsequent publications be printed. The names of approximately 250,000 men, organized into 175 regiments, are found in its pages. The work includes a roster and history for each regiment.

Grand Army of the Republic (G.A.R.) Civil War Veterans' Memorial at Oak Ridge Cemetery in Springfield

The database was created and donated to the Illinois State Archives by Fred Delap of Kansas, Illinois. Delap, a volunteer with the Edgar County Genealogical Society, spent two years of evenings and weekends compiling the index on his personal computer. Delap has also indexed the names of Illinois veterans of the War of 1812, Black Hawk War, Mexican War and Spanish-American War.

The National Park Service has established the web site, Civil War Soldiers' and Sailors' System, which eventually will list all soldiers who served in the Civil War. This site currently provides a searchable database of all African-American soldiers involved in that conflict.

Histories of Illinois Civil War Regiments and Units

The histories of Illinois Civil War regiments and units are included in the first eight volumes of the nine volume publication, Report of the Adjutant General of the State of Illinois (1900-1902). (The ninth volume lists units of the Black Hawk, Mexican and Spanish-American Wars as well as the War of 1812.) The histories, some written shortly after the war's end, are the work of numerous authors throughout the intervening years. The 1886 version of the Adjutant General's Report included regimental histories compiled by that office which had not previously been published.

The final 1900-1902 republication of the report incorporated revisions and corrections to the histories. Researchers may also wish to consult images and histories of flags of Illinois regiments at John Schmale's web site. In recognition of the service of Illinois' six regiments during the Mexican War, the assignment of regimental numbers for infantry began with seven.

The histories of Illinois Civil War regiments and units are provided in a PDF (Portable Document Format) file, which can be viewed or printed using your Web browser and Adobe's Acrobat Reader software. Macintosh and Windows versions of Acrobat Reader may be downloaded free of charge from Adobe.

Photocopies

The researcher can use the regiment number and company letter from this index to obtain further information on a veteran from the published reports or the State Archives record series, Muster and Descriptive Rolls (RS 301.020). The muster and descriptive rolls include rank, age, physical description, occupation, marital status, birthplace, residence, enrollment and mustering out information, and remarks concerning transfers, promotions, injuries, death, or special duty for each soldier.

If you have any questions about or problems with this database, please feel free to contact the Archives. We will attempt to answer your question or resolve your difficulty as quickly as possible. If you would like an unofficial and uncertified photocopy of the soldier's entry in the record series, Muster and Descriptive Rolls (RS 301.020), please include your postal mailing address. As a result of limitations on research time, Archives staff can photocopy no more than 2 entries per request.

BLACK HAWK WAR RECORDS. Ca. 1832-1891. 1 cu. ft. No index.

Files contain both original muster rolls of Illinois volunteers who served in the Black Hawk War and copies of muster rolls filed with the federal government. Copies of federal muster rolls were made pursuant to an 1881 act of the General Assembly which provided for the transcription of these records (L. 1881, p. 30). Original muster rolls are filed by brigade, while federal muster rolls are grouped by county. Entries on each muster roll include soldier's name, rank, date and length of enrollment, county of residence, amount of pay due, and number of traveling rations drawn. For mounted soldiers the rolls also give the value of arms and equipment issued and the value and description of horses issued. Files also contain a small amount of correspondence concerning men who served in the Black Hawk War and material relating to a reunion of these veterans in 1891.

A roster of soldiers who served in the Black Hawk War has been compiled and edited by Ellen M. Whitney, The Black Hawk War, 1831-1832: Illinois Volunteers in Collections of the Illinois State Historical Library, XXXV (Springfield, 1970). OK Hist Soc OKC has this book Crabtree Cemetery, one of the oldest burial places in this part of the state, was incorporated under the laws of the state of Illinois a few days ago. For years the cemetery was one of the leading burying grounds of this vicinity but had never been incorporated.

The following officers and directors were elected: J. M. Beeson, pres.; E. Kirkpatrick, secy.; Frank Paden, treas.; J. Frank Fogelman, Frank Knight, Edward Bargefield. All named, including the officers, constitute the board of directors. The cemetery, which is located 1 mile south of Litchfield, is the oldest in this vicinity with the exception of the Old Catholic Cemetery, now abandoned, and the Lutheran Cemetery. It was organized about the year 1854 by John Crabtree and Arthur Voiles. Hundreds and hundreds of burials have been made in it, especially before the opening of Elmwood Cemetery. It is probable that many who were interred there have been forgotten, as practically all the old records have been lost, and there is nothing to show except the markers and gravestones. At one time, it was a free cemetery, and later, a part of it was set aside as a free burial place. Much confusion existed over the failure to keep the records properly, and stories are told of the same lot being sold twice and of people buying lots and even burying in them and then forgetting where their lot was located. Among the pioneer families who interred their dead in the cemetery in the early days were the Crabtrees, Briggs, Duffs, McVaines, Foglemans, and others. Among them were some of the oldest settlers in the county. At the time the cemetery was started, many farmers held to the practice of burying on their own property, usually near their residence. An old private cemetery that has been allowed to go down is located on the old Street Farm, south of town. The private cemetery is now marked by a clump of cedar trees.

SALUTE TO THE FLAGG FAMILY

Gaius parents Zachariah Paddock Martha Washburn

prepared by Charles Schweizer

Since some ten percent of the members of General George Rogers Clark Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution, are members of the Flagg family, it might be interesting to know something about them.

Gaius Paddock is buried in the Paddock cemetery near Moro on the east side of Illinois Route 159. The cemetery is well maintained, thanks to Flagg family descendants living today. Gaius was honored by the SAR Chapter in 1990 when Compatriot James S. Flagg regaled those attending with stories of the family.

It all started with Gaius Paddock who served as a private in Captain Isaac Wood's Company of the Massachusetts militia. Gaius Paddock is descended from one of the Mayflower settlers of Plymouth Colony so his family has been around a long time. He was born in 1758, and at the age of 17 enlisted in the Massachusetts militia and served for the duration of the Revolutionary War. He was in a group of soldiers who crossed the Delaware with George Washington on Christmas Eve.

In 1786 Gaius Paddock married Mary Wood, the daughter of Josiah Wood, who was his company commander in the Revolution. In 1800 the Paddock family moved to Vermont, and in 1815, Gaius decided to "go West" and headed for Cincinnati, Ohio. He did not stay there long and moved on to St. Charles, Missouri. After a short time he arrived in St. Louis in 1817.

Still on the move, in 1818, he purchased land in Section 3 Range 8 in what is now Fort Russell township of Madison County. Gaius Paddock built his home just southwest of the Paddock cemetery on a road that led from Lake Michigan to Edwardsville which we know as route 159. The house stood until the 1950s, when it was torn down. He died in the summer of 1831, and nineteen years later, Mary Wood Paddock followed her husband. They are buried in the Paddock cemetery they have an impressive monument.

Gaius and Mary had ten children: Jane, Mary, Salome, Susan, Joanna, Sprout Wood, Julia, Eveline, Orville and Elvira Paddock - eight girls and two boys. In 1882 only Susan and Eveline were alive and lived alone in the Paddock home.

This story concerns the Paddock's oldest daughter, Jane. Before 1815 she married Barney Richmond, about whom little is known. By this marriage, she had a son, Volney P. and a daughter, Virginia Jane Richmond. Mr. Richmond died c1826, and Jane married Gershom Flagg on 27 Sep 1827.

Gershom Flagg was born 26 Nov 1792 in Orwell, Vermont. He was the son of Ebenezer Flagg, who served in Captain Benjamin Frothingham's 3rd Massachusetts Artillery Regiment. Ebenezer Flagg married Elizabeth Cutting and had ten children, one of whom was Gershom Flagg. Gershom joined the Vermont militia in 1812 and served as a drummer boy in the War of 1812. In 1816 he moved to Indiana and a year later moved on to St. Louis where he assisted in painting the first steamboat that ever reached St. Louis. In 1818 he moved to Madison County settling in Section 3 Range 8, which he purchased in 1823. Willard Flagg, his great-grandson, who lives today on route 159, is subdividing some of that property. The Flagg property was south of Paddock's property so the widow Richmond (Jane Paddock) lived near Gershom Flagg. The Flagg house was on the west side of what is now Illinois route 159. Gershom Flagg was a prominent citizen serving in the Illinois Legislature, and as a U.S. Collector of Revenue in St. Louis. He died 2 Mar 1857, followed by his wife on 11 Dec 1863, both of whom are buried in the PAddock cemetery.

Gershom and Jane Flagg had one child, Willard Cutting Flagg, born 16 Sep 1829. In 1856 Willard married Sarah Smith of St. Louis, and their children were Bessie, Jennie, Isabel, Mary W., Willard Gershom and Norman Gershom Flagg. Mary married Edward L. Gillham, great-grandson of Revolutionary War soldier John Gillham (SAR member, Frederick Clark Gillham, is a descendant of John). Norman was born 4 Aug 1867 and died in 1948. He married Josephine Emily Hehner 24 Jun 1896 in Warsaw, Illinois. She died in 1961, and both Norman and Josephine are buried in the Paddock cemetery. Norman Flagg was a man of prominence, but for us the important thing is that he was the first Treasurer General of the Sons of the American Revolution. Their children were Elizabeth Hehner, Elinor Bertha, Kathrine Hehner, & Willard Gershom and James Smith Flagg, both members of the General George Rogers Clark Chapter. Eight descendants of these brothers are or have been members of the chapter, viz. James Louis Conrady, Christopher Norman Flagg, James Smith Flagg Jr., James Smith Flagg III, Jeffrey Senn Flagg, Patrick Flagg Jones, Martin Nelson Flagg and Norman Carswell Flagg.

Now back to the Richmonds: Jane Paddock and Barney Richmond's son, Volney P. Richmond married Victoria West, daughter of Emanuel J. West, and they had two children, Edward W. and Isabel G. Richmond. Their daughter, Virginia Jane, was born 5 Sep 1815 and died 18 Dec 1893. She married Abner Yates Ellis, son of Henry and Martha Yates Ellis, on 8 Jun 1837 at Paddock's Grange. Abner was born 30 Nov 1807, and died 10 Mar 1878. One of their children, Henry Ellis, born 13 May 1848, died 25 Jan 1912, married Jemima Montgomery, daughter of James and Elizabeth McKittrick Montgomery. She was born 10 Jul 1852 and died in 1922. Henry and Jemima had a daughter Elsie Eva born 7 Dec 1885, who married Alfred Boettiger 21 Feb 1920, and they are the parents of Alan Donald Boettiger, who is a new member of SAR.

James Montgomery was the son of William Montgomery of Kentucky, who married Sarah Rattan in Madison County 13 Dec 1814. He was born 20 Nov 1786 in Kentucky, the son of Revolutionary War soldier, Thomas Montgomery, who came to America from Ireland in 1769. William and Sarah's children, besides James, were Nelson, John, William N., Thomas J., Paris, Hampton, Nancy, Matilda, Amanda, Ann and Eliza Jane Montgomery. On the 1850 Madison County census, William and his younger children are in James and Elizabeth's household, so Sarah was apparently deceased before 1850. Madison County history states William Montgomery died in 1849, which, obviously, is not correct, but perhaps Sarah did die in that year. Nelson Montgomery married Eleanor Kinder, Jemima McKittrick (Elizabeth's sister) married James Kinder, and there were also intermarriages with the Barnsback family. Thus, we see the Paddock/Flagg family descends from several Revolutionary soldiers.

Dear Barbara,

I had an extra Copy made up of my Duff Genealogy and went to the Library yesterday after I talked to you and got a few more pages Copied so I decided to get it in the mail to you today.

The pictures that I run through the Copy machine I do not have negatives of, I was given a Copy like this I'm sending you. I do have a few more pictures that I'm having made for you. and will send them as soon as I can get them back.

I started my genealogy in 1991 and have really enjoyed it and enjoy helping others. I sent to Ks. for Jennys death record after I couldn't find anything on her here. After I got that & had her Birthday & death date I sent to Wellington Ks to the Library for a newspaper Clipping on her death that gave me names to go on. So I started Calling the operator for names and ph numbers and got Darrow Walcher you gave me Fern Hefton name and as I told you she gave me yours don't know if you are interested i all the Duff history but since I had this copy made decided just send it to you. I got a lot from Marlyn Duff in Wisconsin. She h done a lot of research. Of course th Temples visit in her line so I ha had a hard time tracking down w

I have.

On the Paddock's Jennys father wa
John H. Paddock and I haven't proved it yet but I feel his father was Ebenezer Paddock. I want to g to Kellsboro again and do some research on this.

I am doing my fathers family, people more than once. When you have never done genealogy you don't realize what all it entails. I have went through records at Court houses libraries and tramped through Cemeteries

But every time you find at least one thing it pushes you on to find more. And I love to share with all who are interested. The Temples also. I haven't been able to find out Anna Marys maiden name. Some say her middle name was Miriah but what I found on the Court House it was Mary. I have a dress that belonged to her. It was given to me by a relative who no longer wanted it. I would love to be able to find out when she & Abraham married as this was supposedly her wedding dress. So I don't know just how old it is. She must of been tall & thin as the dress has a very small waist.

Well Barbara will close & go get this mailed. Good luck & God Bless and I look for children & 2 great grand daughters. I'm on page 63 of my information. This information is all marked for me. in the heading where it says grand parents & great's & the little * to show the next generation.

We live in a little community between Peoria & Pekin Ill. We moved here in 1951 when my husband came here to work for Caterpillar. We bought our home & have been here ever since. I was born & raised at Raymond Ill.

I hope all I'm sending you is easy to understand. I don't type & have never done any thing like this before 1991 so I have just learned everything I know on my own. I like to try and bring my history up to date but it's hard sometimes to get people to cooperate. So there is a lot of gaps in names & dates. When you write to people I have found you just take what you get and are very thankful for it. I have called some & ask for dates & names they leave out & as a whole if they know they will give you further help. But it makes

Hope you got your other packet I sent OK.

Dear Barbara,

Thanks so much for the pictures & information. I am so glad I found you. I have always wondered about Aunt Jennie's family and when I started my genealogy I told my husband I knew she had to have descendants if I could just find them. Well to tell you the truth it is an answer to prayer for I ask the Lord to show me how to find her family and it took some time but things all fell into place after I got her death record & knew when she died. I remember my father & his brother Bert going to Kansas to her funeral but I couldn't remember the year. So I had the Court House search on a ten year search from 1939 to 1949. (in Wellington Kansas)

You ask in your letter if I had any documents on Sarah Jane Temple. Im sending you all I have on paper, is a clipping of when she died. She was my fathers mother & I know he knew her last name (maiden name) for sure. I wrote to Columbus Ohio where she was born but they couldn't produce a birth certificate for me.

You wanted to know if there were any Ralphs in our family. The only one I can think of is my cousin
Ralph Bennett son of Bertha Duff Ben and he is deceased.
I believe Jenny Paddock Walcher must of been born at Nokomis as th is where the Paddocks were from.
Anything I can answer for you
I will be glad to do so. My brothe sister were thrilled that I found also. One brother Charles & my siste Vernetta are not into this genealogy very much. But Lorraine & John are as excited as me when I find out something we didn't know before.
I am going down to the Kalahari
Can't leave some time this summe
& dig some more. Just haven't bee able to get away yet. My husband fell on March & damaged a nerve in his left arm. So he just got released from taking treatments 2 3 times a week so now maybe we can get away.

Im sending you all I have on Sarah Jane Temple's brothers & sisters. They have been hard to find and I still have a way to go on them.

Under Chloe Temple Sawyer her son Homer who had the six daughters 4 of them are still living but they are getting old & can't remember much. So Im hunting for someone who I hope has some records. The picture of Chloe & Asa Sawyer isn't very good but the original which my sister has is real faded out.

In the other Pictures I had an extra one of Jennie & her half brothers & sisters so you can give it to your Cousin Carol. And when you gals get your book done Please let me know.

Well Barbara I'll close for this time I have about 5 more letters to answer. Look forward to hearing from you. Thanks loads & may God Bless you & yours.

Love Frances.

Send me a Xmas Card
& your & your family if you have one.

Couple married for 75 years

In an era of rampant divorce and broken families, Darno and Lola Walcher are proof that marriage can last.

The Wichita, Kan., couple has been at it for 75 years. Friends say the two still act as if they were love-struck teen-agers.

"When Lola looks at Darno, you can see the sparkle in her eye," says Jerry Stumpff, a close friend and fellow member of the East Point Church of Christ. "She smiles like a 16-year-old girl looking at a 17-year-old boy. She adores him."

The Walchers married during the Roaring Twenties, survived the Great Depression together and worked side by side during World War II. They saw Neil Armstrong take his first steps on the moon, watched disco come and go and have seen Wichita grow from a small town to the largest city in Kansas.

Lola Walcher was the oldest of eight children and Darno was the oldest boy of his six siblings who grew to adulthood. The couple never had children of their own, something Lola regrets. But at the time, she says, she had her hands full being mother to all her younger brothers and sisters.

Orville Stuard, 75, of San Diego, remembers the times during the Depression when his older sister Lola Walcher helped the family out.

"Darno would cut hair all week at work, then come over during the weekends and cut our hair," he said. "They always made sure the younger kids had Christmas presents during the Depression. They always came through."

The Walchers still live in and care for the brick home they bought when they moved to Wichita 48 years ago.

Learning to compromise is the key to their long and happy lives, Lola Walcher said. "You have to give and take."

Darno Walcher, for his part, says that the most important thing he has learned this century is how to get along with people.

"It doesn't come easy," he said. "The secret is patience."

CAPPERS PAPER. AUG. 10. 1999

From Frances Kantor Duff
Marquette Hills, IL
12/31/99

Dec 31. 1999

Dear Barbara

It was a nice surprise to hear from you at Christmas time. It seems you have had a lot to endure in the year 1999 also. In Mar 1999 my husband had a 5 way by pass heart surgery. They sent him home in 2 days & he had a back set and had to go back to the hospital and kept him 2 more days and sent him home the 2nd time. He really wasn't able even then. His potassium level had dropped off to zero and they finally started giving it to him after I told them off. Well he progressed very slow and I have arthritis in my neck, hands & back and it was all I could do to take care of him. But with a lot of prayer and Gods help we made it. He is doing good now. My arthritis isn't any better but I am have to keep going or become an invalid. So with Gods help I keep going.

I found this clipping in my Cappers paper and I'm sure this is Uncle Charlie Walchers brother You may know all about it. But I thought it very interesting. I know my dad thought a lot of Charles Walcher and talked about him often.

I'm still working on my Genealogy. Just had a letter from a lady in Owensboro Ky. But haven't been able to connect her to my family of Huffs. I'm going to start on the Temples again this coming year. There is a lot I want to know about them yet.

I don't know when I last wrote you but we lost my sister Lorraine and brother Charles both in 1996. We have had quite a few additions also. In may & July of this coming year my husband & I will have 2 more great grand children. That will make ~~us~~ us 7 great grand children. We celebrated our 50th wedding Anniversary in Nov. 1994 and had a wonderful celebration at Jumers Lodge in Peoria. We celebrated our 52nd ann. last nov and a grandson was married on that day also and it was my husbands birthday. So we had a big day.

My brother John & his wife celebrated their 50th wedding this last Nov and they also had a very nice celebration. I think I enjoyed it as much as they did. I wrote them a memary book. and I enjoyed doing it as much as my genealogy. I had a lot of pictures copied for it and wrote over 30 short memary stories about when we were kids and teenagers. I told them while I was writing it I became a little girl again and a teenager and on through my life. The memories sure did flood my mind. I laughed and I cried and enjoyed it all. Their children enjoyed the book as much as my brother & his wife did.

Our weather here has sure been nice the last few days. We had a light snow on the ground for Christmas but it is all gone now as our day time temperature has been close to 50 degrees. I sure hope we don't have real cold weather again soon but we have a way to go before winter will end.

We had a nice Christmas although some were missing our daughter moved to New Mexico and this is the 1st year she has missed being home on Christmas one since she was born and I sure miss her. Some of the grand kids didn't make it home from Indiana either.

I hope you can read my writing my hands are getting pretty messed up with arthritis it hurts to hold a pencil but I love to write and I correspond with a lot of people.

Well I must close and think about what Im going to fix for dinner. We stay home on News Years eve and New Years day. I don't like to be on the road. Too many people that drink & drive.

Have a great year. Im looking forward to it. Keep in touch. May God Bless you

Love Frances.

Barbara Walcher Fulton.

Dear Barbara.
Sorry I have taken so long to answer your letter. was up to the lake for a couple of weeks. In looking at the information I have on the Paddocks. I don't think it is the same family. Our Paddock family goes back to 1309 in France and then to Ireland and then here in 1630.
as soon as I get caught up on several things I have to do. I will copy what I have and send them to you. I can't vouch for the accuracy of the information except that regarding Robert Paddock. I have been to Plymouth and have verified that much of the history. will try to get this to you in several weeks.

Yours truly
Robert E. Bearman

Dear Robert,

How wonderful to receive a note from a possible Paddock cousin! I thank you so much for taking the time to write. I do not remember when I posted the information on Heritage Quest, but am so glad that you have responded! I would be so happy to find there is a tie to your research.

Jennie Marie Paddock was my great grandmother, she was the daughter of John D. Paddock and Sarah Jane Temple who lived in the Hillsboro, Montgomery County, IL area. I am enclosing the information I have on the family.

Several years ago I corresponded with Mrs. Frances Carter regarding the family. Frances was related through the marriage of Sarah Jane Temple Paddock who married Bazzel/Basel Duff after the death of her husband John. I have written Frances several times, but have not received a reply, but then she was more interested in the Duff line than the Paddock.

If there is a tie to your Paddock line, I would so appreciate receiving some of your research. I will be happy to reimburse you for copies.

Again, thank you for writing and I very much look forward to hearing from you.

Most sincerely,

Enclosures
